Delegates to Convention at Denver Begin Westward Jaunt to Coast

By A. L. Baird, president, Glendale Kiwanis Club, and L. Ferguson, delegate to International Kiwanis Convention.

DENVER, June 20.—The most successful Kiwanis convention in the history of Kiwanis, with 6000 delegates and visitors in attendance, came to a close last night with the election of Victor M. Johnson, of Rockford, Ill., as president, and the choice of St. Paul as the next convention city in 1925. Seattle and Washington, D. C., were competitors in the selection of the next meeting place.

The outstanding feature of the convention was the adoption of a new constitution, as well as the adoption of the recommendation of Leslie B. Henry, of Pasadena, chairman of the resolutions committee in formulating a new policy for Kiwanis in considering questions of national importance of a political or economic nature. It will be the duty of the international public affairs committee, composed of international past presidents, to secure first hand information. This information will be given to the members through the official magazine and all clubs will be urged to discuss these questions at their regular meetings with the idea of forming intelligent opinions.

Brown Is Honored
Inasmuch as our government is divided into three departments, namely, executive, legislative and judicial, and inasmuch as there seems to be a movement on foot to make the decisions rendered by federal and state supreme courts subject to approval of the legislative body, it was the unanimous vote of the convention that this judicial power should remain entirely as now vested in the supreme courts, which was one of the fundamental principles of the constitution.

W. R. ("Bill") Brown of Glendale made an excellent report as chairman of the international

Coolidge Agrees to Start Power Project

WASHINGTON, June 20.—President Coolidge has agreed to press the button next August which will put into action the first unit of the new Skagit hydro-electric power system of Seattle. The power development will produce a volume of current equivalent to that of Niagara Falls.

BLACK HAND NOTE

LOS ANGELES, June 20.—New clues to the slayings of Frank Rinaldo and Phillip De Lisi, found murdered in automobile near Gardena, were uncovered today in discovery that Rinaldo had received a "black hand" letter shortly before his death.

Two Japanese Murdered At Point Directly Opposite U. S. Coast Defense Fortifications

LOS ANGELES, June 20.—A strange Oriental mystery confronted police here today, following the finding of the horribly mutilated bodies of two Japanese on a lonely seashore road north of San Pedro, at a spot directly opposite where the United States government is reputed to have secret coast defense fortifications.

A rigid investigation was immediately launched, in which it was said military authorities from Fort McArthur were co-operating. The two bodies were found close together, one partly hidden in brush. Both men appeared to have been shot to death only a short time before the bodies were found. One body was shot four times, the other three and both bore deep knife gashes. One of the men, believed to be G. Igarashi, partially identified from clothing purchased in Chicago, had his chin shot away, apparently by a bullet from a high-powered rifle. The Japanese were well dressed

Danger From Fire Stressed as Warm Weather Continues

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—With fair and continued warm weather in sight for the Pacific coast states, the United States weather bureau today issued warnings against forest, grain and brush fires throughout the Pacific slope.

Phoenix, Ariz., Calexico, Cal., and Riverside, Cal., all reported a maximum temperature of 100 yesterday, while Yuma, Ariz., was the hottest spot in the United States, with a temperature of 102. Many California valley points reported temperatures of 92 and 94 and these may be exceeded this afternoon and tomorrow, according to the weather predictions. Warnings were issued shippers to protect shipments through the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys against maximum temperatures of 100 and across the desert of about 110.

TELLS NEED OF EXTRA SCHOOLS FOR NORTHWEST

Residents of That Section To Ask for Four New Structures Soon

A mass meeting was held last night in the Central avenue school for discussing matters of interest to the welfare of the children in the northwest section of Glendale. The meeting was presided over by O. M. Newby and plans were outlined for a program to meet the needs of this rapidly growing section.

The following program was planned by the large number of residents in this section who were in attendance:

- 1 The erection of an intermediate school on the present site of Glenwood road and Kenilworth avenue.
- 2 A grammar school in the Lake district, recently annexed to Glendale. The children of this district now have to cross the Southern Pacific tracks, the San Fernando boulevard and the Pacific Electric tracks in order to reach the Grand View school, which is overcrowded.
- 3 A grammar school between the Grand View and Central avenue schools.
- 4 An addition to the present Grand View school.
- 5 Approve selling of present Harvard street High school for civic purposes and a new high school to be erected in the northwest district.

The next mass meeting will be held July 1 in the Grand View school. The subjects to be discussed at this meeting will include the greater school program for the northwest, co-operation and library bonds.

COMMITTS SUICIDE

LOS ANGELES, June 20.—Leaving a note in which he declared "the evil spirits got me," Martin Stange, 35, committed suicide here today by swallowing poison.

Refute Testimony

The second feature was the testimony of the manager and janitor of the building who swore that the cafeteria where Donwell said he was headed to get some whole-sale business, was closed on the date in question. Attorneys Lewinson and Bernhill for the defense produced records of the public health department to show that the establishment was open.

This contradictory evidence and the plausibility of Donwell's robbery story were stressed by Attorney Lewinson in closing the case. Privately he stated that Donwell was "so terrified" by the unusual circumstances in which he was placed by robbers, creditors and Nettie Bowen, with whom he was living here, that his disappearance was nothing extraordinary, although it was made so when efforts to pay out on his business failed.

FATALLY INJURED

LOS ANGELES, June 20.—Falling from the fourth floor of a building where he was working, Fred Chesser, 37, bricklayer, was fatally injured today.

MAIL STRIKE CRIPPLES SERVICE

Canada Government Rejects Plea for Arbitration With Employees

OTTAWA, June 20.—Mail service was badly disorganized in parts of Canada today as a result of the attempt to bring about a nation-wide postal strike.

Toronto is the strike center. Leaders in the strike movement there are using all possible pressure to make the strike general. Most of the postal employees in Montreal are out and large quantities of mail matter are accumulating there. A similar condition prevails in the central and western parts of Ontario.

Trains arriving from the United States during the past 24 hours have brought only small quantities of mail.

Deny Arbitration
The government has rejected the men's request for arbitration, but the impression is growing that normal conditions cannot be restored until decisive government action is taken.

Considerable confusion exists in the ranks of the postal workers, owing to the absence of definite orders from the leaders. In the absence of such orders, many employees who had quit, returned to work today. It was reported that practically all the men on the Pacific coast had returned to their posts, meanwhile awaiting further instructions from the strike leaders.

An effort is being made by government officials to fill the places of many strikers.

DONWELL'S CASE IN JURY'S HANDS

Fate of Glendale Merchant In Fraud Trial Will Be Known Shortly

By GIL A. COWAN
For Southern News Service.
LOS ANGELES, June 20.—The fate of David Pashkow, alias Donwell, tried on charges of conspiracy to defraud, today was in the hands of the jury in Federal Judge Paul J. McCormick's court. It is probable they will report after deliberating during luncheon served at the government's expense today.

Testimony concluding the case had two features. Donwell told how in three months' time he had paid out more than $38,000 from his business. And he could not be tangled by Assistant United States District Attorney Russell Graham regarding the $5200 robbery in the basement of the San Fernando building July 31, 1923, just prior to Donwell's disappearance.

Refute Testimony

The second feature was the testimony of the manager and janitor of the building who swore that the cafeteria where Donwell said he was headed to get some whole-sale business, was closed on the date in question. Attorneys Lewinson and Bernhill for the defense produced records of the public health department to show that the establishment was open.

This contradictory evidence and the plausibility of Donwell's robbery story were stressed by Attorney Lewinson in closing the case. Privately he stated that Donwell was "so terrified" by the unusual circumstances in which he was placed by robbers, creditors and Nettie Bowen, with whom he was living here, that his disappearance was nothing extraordinary, although it was made so when efforts to pay out on his business failed.

Collects and Spends

An incident told of the settlement made had a rather humorous angle. A Japanese vegetable merchant on East Colorado boulevard, Glendale, who had $89 due him, was called into the federal building to get his pro rata of $2.50. And it took him so long to collect that a policeman tagged his machine for parking over the given limit and the Japanese was fined $5.

Meusel, Cole, Ruth Fined for Part In Fight at Detroit

CHICAGO, June 20.—Bob Meusel, New York American outfielder, was fined $100 and suspended ten days; Pitcher Cole of Detroit, was fined $50 and suspended ten days, and Babe Ruth, home run king, was fined $50 in a final decision reached here today by President Ben Johnson of the American league, for their part in the riotous game at Detroit last Friday when Umpire Evans forfeited the game to the Yankees.

Meusel and Cole already are under automatic suspension. Mr. Johnson's decision only sets a limit. Ruth's fining and the fines given Meusel and Cole are the new findings in today's decision.

SHIPS CRASH IN CURTAIN OF FOG NEAR CAPE RACE

Passengers Saved as Vessel Speeds to Shore With Sailors at Pumps

ST. JOHNS, N. F., June 20.—Presence of mind and devotion to duty saved probably 1000 lives when the Canadian Pacific liner Metagama was nearly cut in two in collision with the Italian steamship Clara Campus in a thick curtain of mist seven miles off Cape Race, it was learned today. The Metagama was carrying 1000 passengers, were creeping through the fog Wednesday night when the Italian ship struck the other steamer amidships, tearing a gigantic hole in her hull.

The Canadian liner began immediately to send out SOS calls. Other vessels turned from their course but owing to the thick weather had difficulty in locating the scene of the accident.

Race for Safety
The Metagama began a thrilling race for safety. While the hold filled with water the vessel was turned toward shore but could only creep, owing to the thick fog and the severe list to starboard. The pumps were kept working at the highest pressure while officers went among the passengers assuring them that they were safe.

At last after a twenty-four-hour battle the Metagama made port and was beached. Officers said she was saved "by a few yards." Despite the danger to themselves and the passengers, three sailors found out how badly the Clara Campus had been damaged. They got lost in the fog and their fate is unknown.

The Clara Campus, beached port shortly after the Metagama, with her bows badly crumpled.

Fog Halts Start of Dawn-to-Dust Flight

NEW YORK, June 20.—A low ceiling of fog prevented Lieutenant Russell Maughan from hopping off this morning on his transatlantic dawn-to-dusk flight. After complete preparations had been made for Maughan's departure, a blanket of fog suddenly descended and the flight was called off.

Attorney General To Direct War on Gas Price Fixing

WASHINGTON, June 20.—A nation-wide movement to prosecute persons or organizations involved in alleged steps to fix prices of gasoline was launched today by the federal government.

Attorney General Stone announced he would confer here next month with United States attorneys and legal representatives of the several states to outline plans for the campaign.

IOWA HEARS WHY JUDGE BLOCKED

Fight Against Kenyon at Cleveland Stirs West, Lawrence Learns

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924

CHICAGO, June 20.—The west—and particularly Iowa—is just now learning the inside story of how the nomination of Judge William A. Kenyon for the vice presidency was blocked. From returning delegates and their friends, the details have been pieced together and it would appear that resentment over the active part taken by Judge Kenyon in the fight against Senator Newberry of Michigan, together with an old grievance of Secretary Mellon against the congressional leader are held primarily responsible.

The delegates say that when President Coolidge indicated his desire to have Judge Kenyon nominated the secretary of the treasury promptly telephoned the White House in protest. "I'm thankful to Andy Mellon," is the comment Judge Kenyon has recently made about the affair to his friends, for he is well satisfied with the federal bench and did not wish his name to go before the convention. But Iowa is not thankful to Secretary Mellon. On the contrary the incident has provoked so much discussion that it may have a bearing on the campaign in the west. There is a theory here that the Secretary of the Treasury opposed Kenyon because the latter on more than one occasion in the Senate fought the large business and financial interests of the east when they appeared before Congress.

Recalls Old Fight
For instance, the Sioux City Tribune points out editorially that the opposition of Secretary Mellon to Kenyon dates back to the days when the Iowa senator fought the imposition of any duty on aluminum on the ground that

Famous Woman Spy Is Divorced by Husband

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—Evelyn Knight, declared by her husband to be the famous English and French secret service agent who delivered Mlle. Mata Hari, alleged German spy and famous dancer, to the French authorities, was divorced by Walter B. Knight, Knight told Judge E. P. Shortall he believed Mlle. Mata Hari innocent. The divorce was granted on the grounds of cruelty and testimony of Knight that his wife had deserted him.

Soft Drink King Asks Divorce, Married Year

ATLANTA, Ga., June 20.—Asa G. Candler, aged soft drink king, today filed a suit for divorce in the Fulton superior court against the pretty young woman to whom he has been married less than a year.

The suit followed a domestic wrangle several months ago when Mrs. Candler was arrested in a fashionable apartment house here and charged with being "the occupant of a dive." She later was acquitted of the charges.

LONDON, June 20.—Mrs. Marion Jessup defeated Miss Eleanor Goss in the final of the Roehampton tennis tournament today, 6-4, 6-1.

COMMUNIST SLOGAN IS ADOPTED

Control of Government by Farmers and Workers Is Campaign Cry

ST. PAUL, June 20.—Control of the government by farmers and workers was a campaign cry flung to the nation today by the new third party formed here under the control of the Communists.

"We are going into the campaign following the dictates of our platform, calling for nationalization of industry and control of the government by the farmers and the toilers," Duncan McDonald of Springfield, Ill., the party's presidential nominee, told International News Service.

McDonald's announcement that the party would press a vigorous drive to capture the votes of "exploited farmers and workers" was supported by William Bouck of the state of Washington, unanimously chosen as the vice-presidential nominee.

But McDonald's hopeful prediction for the new party was not shared by the chiefs of the Farmer-Labor delegations to the convention, who walked out of the hall, charging "complete domination of the party by Communists."

La Follette to Quit
More than two-score delegates bolted the convention when McDonald, backed by the Communist leaders, William Z. Foster, C. E. Ruthenberg and Joseph Manley, all of Chicago, were nominated.

It is certain that La Follette will not continue to have anything to do with the party which asks for votes upon a platform that actually was written under the personal dictation of Manley, Foster and the law.

Holding this view, many of the delegates who bolted planned to go to Cleveland for the "Big Four Brotherhood" convention July 4, when it was believed here La Follette would be formally endorsed for the presidency.

HERRIOT WINS IN CONFIDENCE TEST

French Deputies Support New Cabinet Leader After Stormy Session

PARIS, June 20.—After a stormy session during which members clashed on the floor, the Chamber of Deputies gave the new Herriot cabinet a vote of confidence today. The vote stood: For the government 313; against the government 234.

This was the ministry's first test of strength. Herriot sought the vote to make sure he had the support of the chamber when he goes to London tomorrow to confer with Premier Ramsay MacDonald upon reparations and the Ruhr issue.

Socialist and Communist deputies came to blows. While the fighting was in progress right bloc deputies remained in their seats cheering the fighters. President Painleve was compelled to suspend the session temporarily while the sergeant-at-arms separated the combatants and restored order.

Shortridge Approves Hughes Japanese Note

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Satisfaction was expressed over the reply of Secretary of State Hughes to the Japanese immigration protest by Senator Samuel M. Shortridge of California. The reply of Secretary Hughes was "in every way satisfactory," stated the senator.

Henry W. Wright Candidate For Re-election to Supervisor Board

Henry W. Wright, member of the Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles county, representing the fifth district, of which Glendale is a part, today authorized The Glendale Evening News to formally announce his candidacy for re-election.

Supervisor Wright is well known in Glendale, for he has taken a particular interest in the progress of the city and has always worked in harmony with the various civic organizations. Only recently he was instrumental in placing flood control funds for the city in the hands of the city fathers.

"I am always glad to do all I can for Glendale," said Supervisor Wright, "for it has been good to me. Your people harmonize with the county officials and it is a pleasure to work for Glendale."

Formal Statement

In announcing his candidacy, Supervisor Wright issued the following statement:

"I have served the people of Los Angeles county as supervisor of the fifth district for the fifth term of my predecessor, and I hereby announce that I will be a candidate to succeed myself for a full term, at the coming primary election.

"As a supervisor, I have familiarized myself with the problems and with due regard to the interests and welfare of the taxpayers.

"I desire to record my grateful appreciation for the fine spirit of co-operation heretofore shown at all times by civic organizations and citizens generally throughout the district.

"Sincerely yours,

"HENRY W. WRIGHT."

Supervisor Wright has a large number of strong supporters throughout the district and, it is predicted by his friends, he will be re-elected by a great vote.

LEADERS TRY TO COMBINE TO PREVENT CHOICE

Managers of Californian In Constant Conference To Win Delegates

BULLETIN

NEW YORK, June 20.—Formal announcement was made here today that former Senator James N. Phelan of California will place the name of William Gibbs McAdoo in nomination as the Democratic presidential candidate. Phelan is on the steamer Berengaria, which will dock here tomorrow.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
For International News Service.

NEW YORK, June 20.—All efforts by the anti-McAdoo forces here are being concentrated today on winning the 732 votes, or two-thirds necessary to nominate a presidential candidate.

"Stop McAdoo!"

This cry rolled up and down the corridors of the Waldorf, propelled by the supporters of every other candidate in the list—the Smith forces or the Underwood managers, the Davis boomers, the Ralston men and the adherents of Robinson, of Cox, Bryan and of Walsh, and of horses of hues so dark their lines are yet hardly discernible.

Confident—and Worried
Two blocks away on the eighth floor of the Vanderbilt hotel, the McAdoo managers sit in a sort of endless conference figuring ways and means of beating the combination.

They are confident and yet they are worried. They believe the McAdoo delegates will stick—and yet they are not sure of it. The two hotels house the two rival camps into which the Democratic convention has been divided.

The headquarters of every other candidate is located at the Waldorf.

At the Waldorf there is a continual coming and going of anti-McAdoo leaders: George Brennan, the round, grinning "boss" of Illinois; Governor Al Smith, the nearest contender to McAdoo from the standpoint of delegate strength; C. C. Carlin, who directs the Underwood candidacy; George White and Ed Moore, the Ohio men who trailed with Cox four years ago; Joe Guffey of Pennsylvania; Frank Hague, mayor of Jersey City, who are backing Silver; the lieutenants of Tom Taggart of Indiana, who are backing Ralston; the Davis people; the Ritchie people, all of them.

A conference attended by many of these men was held last night. Others will be held continuously between now and nomination time next Thursday or Friday.

PUPILS PRESENT
STUNT PROGRAM

La Crescenta and Montrose
Enjoy Performance In School Auditorium

LA CRESCENTA, June 20.—A stunt show was the newest thing offered the children and parents of the La Crescenta and Montrose schools for their amusement yesterday afternoon when the different grades vied with each other in presenting the most original number on the impromptu program. None of the stunts presented were rehearsed and were, probably for that reason, much funnier.

The curtains rose on time, showing a group of eighth graders who did very professional looking tumbling and balancing stunts which were heartily applauded. The acrobats in this number were Donald Skellie, Paul McOsler, Neil Darby and Johnnie Potter.

Marjorie and David Brown sang "Where the River Shannon Flows," while Marjorie and Helen Rogers won applause with their musical numbers, instrumental and vocal.

Simpfunny Orchestra
One of the hits of the program was the sixth grade number, entitled "The Simpfunny Orchestra," the members of which performed on whistles, combs, tin pans, horns and other peculiar instruments. The big laugh came when Siegel Swain, nattily attired in evening clothes of brilliant blue, announced the orchestra would play "In the Morning on the Back Porch" backwards, a feat never before attempted by any orchestra. The musicians turned their backs toward the audience and proceeded to play the number in a perfectly normal manner.

Mildred Maranville, pupil of the Pearl Keller school of dancing, gave her Merry Widow waltz which she recently danced in Los Angeles. A flute solo by Evelyn Keller, accompanied by Dorothy Potter, was well received.

Clowns, thin, fat, short and tall came next and some very clever work was done by the funny chaps, the feminine member of the troupe scoring a hit by standing on her head for three minutes.

A clever skit was the take-off on interpretative dancing entitled the "Gabby Goo."

The Gump Family made their appearance with the presentation of the toothache episode from a recent Sunday edition of the comic sheet.

Montrose Minstrels

Montrose made a splendid showing with the clever minstrel troupe they brought up for the occasion.

As no good stunt show would be complete without its midgits two were on hand to produce all the comedy needed and more. Georgie Wadey is a natural comedian and as such merited the applause given him. The Arizona cow boys in a musical turn were very good. Dale Craig playing several of the popular new songs, also accompanying John Hansen and L. B. Key, who played on the mouth organ and sweet potatoes, respectively. As their encore this enterprising group played "Barney Google," the audience singing the words to the song.

Elizabeth Talbot Martin gave an original interpretative dance, after which Helen Haskins read the class will, which was followed by the reading of the class prophecy by Constance Angier.

The playground supervisor, F. Newton, has been engaged for the months of July and August.

LOS ANGELES, June 20.—All of the frightfully burned blue-jackets injured in the U. S. S. Mississippi explosion will recover, it was said today in Los Angeles harbor where the men are confined on the hospital ship Relief. Not only will they be restored to health, but due to the use of a new secret lotion for major burns they will carry no scars. The new lotion, said to mark a remarkable medical advancement, was used by navy surgeons for the first time during the Mississippi disaster.

Row Over Subdivision

SANTA ANA, June 20.—"Listen to the Knocking Bird." That was a sign appearing on a Westminster subdivision Sunday.

It led to words and words led to blows and blows led to court and that led to two $50 fines for pugnacious, combative, competing real estate men.

Max LaPat, San Pedro druggist, heard someone was "knocking" his lots. He was given a severe beating by Lloyd Morris, while H. F. Roberts, his salesman, was similarly manhandled by E. B. Finley, which resulted in Justice Jack Landell assessing the fines against Morris and Finley.

Launch War Against
Mixed Dancing Halls

LOS ANGELES, June 20.—War against dance halls in Sonoma town, Los Angeles' night life section, where white girls are employed as partners to dance with Japanese and Chinese patrons, was declared by acting Mayor Boyle Workman on request of the police commission to press an investigation of the situation.

"I am informed," said Workman, "that these dance halls pay white American girls a stipulated salary for no other purpose than to furnish them as partners to Japanese and Chinese dance hall frequenters. I will take steps to stop this practice at once."

INGLEDUE TELLS DIRECTORS' WORK IN Y. CAMPAIGN

$3,000,000 Is Raised by E. L. Mogge In Drive to Finance St. Louis Plant

Glendale residents, who are preparing to participate actively in the fall campaign for funds for a local Y. M. C. A. building, will hear with interest of the recent successful campaign in St. Louis, Mo., where $3,000,000 was raised under the direction of E. L. Mogge, who is to direct the Glendale campaign for $275,000 the third week in September.

"Christianity was on trial in no uncertain way in the St. Louis campaign," says C. W. Ingledue of the local Y. M. C. A. "In face of extraordinary difficulties Christianity has proved its vitality in no uncertain terms."

Stupendous Task
 The Central Y. M. C. A. building in St. Louis, Mr. Ingledue states, burned in 1921. This five entirely new buildings and enlargement of three others.

Of the campaign he says further, "With ample evidence of confidence on the part of the community in the character and need of Y. M. C. A. service, but with many warnings that the proposed goal was impossible, 1,300 men of various groups and creeds set out to enlist the active interest of thousands of citizens. Thirteen days, running into the second week of June, were devoted to the actual campaign. It was preceded by what was observed as 'Young Men's Sunday' in the churches, synagogues and Y. M. C. A.'s. Throughout the campaign, ministers and laymen, representing some 200 churches, actively co-operated."

Triumph of Youth
 "The success of the effort was a triumph not only for the spiritual forces represented in the church and the Y. M. C. A. it was a triumph of youth. The leadership and the largest responsibility throughout was in the hands of young men."

"Citizens of many classes and creeds contributed. The colored group, who will have an additional building as well as an enlargement of their present building, subscribed $125,000. This included the largest single gift ever

Escaping Convict Held at Bay Till Officers Show Up

An escaped convict at Young's garage, La Crescenta, furnished a thrill shortly after 6 o'clock last night. While mechanics held him at bay with shotguns and monkey wrenches, a hurry call was sent to the Glendale police department and relayed to the Los Angeles sheriff's office.

At 7 o'clock a squad of strong-arm men arrived from Los Angeles in an automobile, heavily armed, and made the capture, returning their prisoner safely behind bars.

HALT ATTACK ON HAUNTED HOUSE

Police Foil Boys' Drive on Hang-out of Spooks as Violence Looms

Glendale has a real live "haunted" house. And it is worrying the police department considerably. This spooky residence is located at the corner of Columbus avenue and Riverdale drive, and is the anathema of boys of the section, who have threatened to end its ghostly career.

Yesterday afternoon, around 3 o'clock, a hurry call from neighbors brought officers to the scene just in time to prevent a crowd of about 200 young "ghost-breakers" from doing physical violence to the old house. Indeed, they had already broken several windows with well-aimed missiles. Needless to say, the house is vacant.

Let any further injustice be done this alleged hangout of spooks, the police department has received orders from Chief John D. Fraser to guard the old house. Patrolmen passing the spot on the night beat are looking forward to some exciting times.

made by a colored man or woman, $25,000 given by Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Malone.

"The successful culmination of this large campaign held in the middle west, together with the present interest in the raising of $1,500,000 for Y. M. C. A. buildings in Los Angeles, are most encouraging barometers."

ENGINEERS LAUD GLENDALE SPIRIT ON BRIEF VISIT

Civic Organizations Welcome Convention Delegates Passing Through

"What's the matter with Glendale?" It's all right! That was the unanimous verdict of the members of the American Society of Civil Engineers, now meeting in annual convention at Pasadena, when they parted from their Glendale hosts at the western city limits yesterday afternoon, following a brief speech of welcome and a trip through the main streets of the city under an escort composed of representatives of the various civic organizations and service clubs.

Close to 100 cars, carrying members of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, which, sponsored the welcome, the Glendale Realty Board, the Glendale Merchants' association, the Rotary, Exchange and Kiwanis and Optimists clubs, assembled at the city limits on East Broadway to greet the engineers as they passed through Glendale on their way to Culver City to inspect the motion picture studios.

Speech of Welcome
 Mayor Spencer Robinson, when the busses containing the engineers halted at the city limits, made a brief address, welcoming the distinguished guests to Glendale, and Charles Grunsky, president of the American Society of Civil Engineers, and Franklin D. Howell, vice-president of the Motor Transit corporation, in charge of the motorecade, joined the mayor and President W. E. Hewitt of the Chamber of Commerce in the former's car and rode through the city with them.

Every member of the engineers' party received a copy of Glendale's booklet, the new folder issued by the advertising committee, and one of the "100,000" buttons, and the reception accorded them here made a deep and favorable impression on the minds of the city's guests, who represented every city of importance in the United States.

It had originally been planned to route the party by another way that would have missed Glendale, but Secretary E. F. Sanders of the Chamber of Commerce, after several weeks' correspondence, suc-

FRENCH TEACHER PLANS VACATION TRIP TO EUROPE

Mrs. Ethel W. Bailey to Meet Miss Stephens Abroad On Summer Jaunt

Mrs. Ethel W. Bailey, instructor of French at the Glendale Union High school, will leave on Sunday for a summer vacation trip to Europe. She will meet Miss Stephens, head of the language department, who has been absent from her duties at the school since last February while making a tour of Central Europe. They will return to Glendale next fall just in time for the opening of the school in September.

Accompanying Mrs. Bailey as far as Kansas City will be Miss Mary Brownrigg, Miss Jessie M. Hill and Miss Gladys M. Tilley, all members of the faculty at the high school, who are taking vacation trips to the east. Mrs. Bailey will make a stop at Washington, D. C., before continuing on to New York to sail on the Majestic on June 28.

Going to Paris
 The ship will dock at Cherbourg and Mrs. Bailey will go directly to Paris to meet Miss Stephens there on July 4. Miss Stephens has toured Italy, Spain and Southern France, and will complete her tour of Northern France with Mrs. Bailey. The latter will later meet Miss Ella M. Hardy, another member of the faculty touring Europe, and will travel with her through Southern France.

Although she is planning to spend the greater part of the time in Paris where she will attend lecture courses at the Sorbonne, Mrs. Bailey will take sufficient time to visit the famous cities throughout France. She will make the trip with Miss Stephens to London a few days before the sailing date. Leaving Southampton August 22, they will arrive in Montreal on September 2, with just sufficient time to get back to Glendale in time for the opening of school.

BOND ISSUE WINS C. C.'S APPROVAL

Directors Endorse Plans to Raise $47,000 for More Space in Library

T. W. Preston, president of the Glendale Public Library board, has been advised by the officials of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce that the organization has endorsed the proposed $47,000 library bond issue. The letter follows:

"At the regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, held last night, your letter of June 14th was presented to them.

"The Board unanimously went on record as supporting the Bond issue of forty-seven thousand dollars ($47,000.00) as explained in your letter.

"Very truly yours,
 "CHAMBER OF COMMERCE,
 "E. F. Sanders, Secretary."
 In addition to the above, says Mr. Preston, the Tuesday Afternoon Club, College Women's Club, The Federated Parent-Teachers' Association, Foothill Improvement Association, and other organizations, have already gone on record as approving these bonds.

A welcome contribution to the work of preparing for this election has been the voluntary offer of the Glendale Union High school to address 14,000 envelopes, containing a sample ballot to be mailed to registered voters.

AWARD DIPLOMAS TO STUDENTS IN SCHOOL PROGRAM

White Tells Advantages of Education In Address To Graduates

One hundred and forty-three members of the 1924 graduating class of the Glendale Intermedi-ate school received their diplomas last night in the school auditorium, 1017 South Glendale avenue, before a large audience of proud parents and admiring friends.

The graduates, as they made their appearance at the rear of the auditorium and marched two abreast to the front where they were seated, presented a pleasing sight with the girls wearing the white regulation middie and skirt with yellow tie with a black letter "G" applied on one end and the boys wearing dark suits with black ties and yellow "G."

The program was announced by Norman R. Whytock, principal, who also introduced the principal speaker of the evening, Richardson D. White, superintendent of city schools. He gave an inspiring address on the value of an education, urging each graduate to take advantage of the wonderful opportunity offered them today through the public high schools.

He also gave briefly the history of education and the advancement of education and the advancement of education.

Whittier College Head Urges Youth to Choose Ideal Early In Life

Speaking before a crowd that jammed the new Broadway auditorium to the topmost seat in the balcony and the 242 graduates seated beside him on the stage, Dr. Walter F. Dexter, president of Whittier college, gave an inspirational message of appeal and advice to those who were leaving the Glendale High school, which, at the close, brought forth a great burst of applause from the audience assembled last night for the commencement exercises.

Leading up to his subject in an easy and pleasant style, he won his listeners to him with his fine humor and then swung into his message to the seniors who were about to receive the diplomas releasing them to advance into a "world full of challenges and problems." Urging them to pick out an ideal early in life, he said: "You must center your attention on an ideal and follow it untiringly until you have gained your end. The measure of your success depends on the enthusiasm with which you strive for your ideals."

"An educated man must also know the value of friendship, and this is one of the greatest assets to be received from the high

Acquaint Yourself With the New Spring Colors in Hosiery

One day, being in a BLACK mood, I decided that I must need a change of ATMOSPHERE, so I took my AIRE-DALE and my FRENCH NUDE swag-ger stick with IVORY tip and went for a stroll on the SAND. THE ENGLISH BROWNS and the THRUSHES were playing POLO with NEUTRAL GREY BAMBOO clubs. Near the LOG CABIN one of the CORDOVAN horses, becoming frightened at a FIELD MOUSE, slipped on a BANANA and the rider, having imbibed too freely of CHAM-PAGNE, fell off the horse on his COCOA and got a PEACH of an AFRI-CAN BROWN bruise on his SUN-BURNED face.

This was getting too rough for me and I felt I OTTER have a CAMEL or a CINNAMON roll. So I drolled up in my PEARL GREY pumps and my JACK RABBIT hose and BEIGE hat and went to the GREY DAWN cafe.

THE MOVIES A CRIME SCHOOL

A physician who conducts a department of child health in a woman's magazine warns parents of the physical effects of the movies on the child. He claims the child needs play, exercise and out-door recreation, and not the kind of entertainment afforded by the average movie; that the health of the child is imperiled in theatres where the air is foul and where the crowds are not over particular about coughing, sneezing and expectorating; that the movie is a prolific source of eye strain in children; that it encourages late hours with the attendant loss of necessary sleep; that the excitement of the movie acts as an irritant to the child's brain and has a bad effect on his nervous system.

But the effect of regular attendance at the movies on the physical health of the child is not so important or far-reaching as its influence upon his moral life. Any one who makes a habit of movie attendance must admit that there is not more than one picture in a hundred that is fit for the immature child to see.

A 6-year-old girl coming out of a picture theatre the other evening was heard to say, "I tell you what I would have done. I would have taken that gun and shot him." And her parents laughed at her ferocity and precocity. There is nearly always a gun that goes into action at the slightest provocation. Is it to be wondered at that the small boy who attends the movies from one to three or four times a week should get the idea that it is the proper and natural thing to carry a gun and to use it? Is it surprising that burglary, hold-up, even murder becomes so commonplace by oft-repeated portrayals upon the screen that it seems to the child not to be crime at all? The action of the play is what the child sees and what influences his plastic mind.

A prominent judge said, "I believe the source of much delinquency in children to be the movies. The story of the picture may be ever so moral, but the moral escapes the child. He remembers that a boy stole an apple from a fruit stand, that a policeman chased him, that the policeman fell down, permitting the boy to escape. Then he goes ahead and imitates the little thief in the movies."

Not every child tries to imitate the movie actor, but it is absolutely certain that children's minds must absorb quantities of smut of all kinds from the cheap motion pictures that will have an influence on their morals all their lives, for what is learned in childhood is seldom forgotten.

Some parents take their children to the movies or allow them to go unchaperoned without the slightest idea of the character of the picture to be shown. If it proves to be a "sex" picture the parent thinks, "Johnnie doesn't know what it is about." But the things that Johnnie knows and understands are appalling. A child too young to read the titles—he couldn't have been more than 5—was overheard to make a remark revealing that he understood the full significance of a suggestive incident portrayed on the screen.

The possibility of the motion picture for good is unlimited. But the thoughtful parent, the teacher, the minister, the physician, the judge—all see that the average movie today is a great source of evil and responsible for much of the present-day crime. Our criminals used to be mature. Now they are boys and young men, trained in the crime school of the movies; drilled by the movie in the methods of the house-breaker, the boot-legger, the safe-cracker, the highwayman, the murderer.

What is to be done? Censorship is not the answer. Censors are individuals, and individuals have all sorts of opinions. The movie people and a large portion of the public shift the responsibility to the shoulders of Will Hays, but he has not proved infallible by any means. A well-known Glendale man who is himself engaged in picture production showed the editor of The Glendale Evening News a list of forty pictures passed by Will Hays, and this man said there were twenty-three pictures in this list which he did not consider fit to be shown upon the screen. Of course there are notable exceptions to pictures that instill crime in the minds of the young, but the average movie is not very uplifting.

The physician mentioned above recommends for children an educational film and a clean comedy at a special session of school on Saturday.

The situation is in the hands of the parents, and those adults who do not care for suggestive pictures and stories. When the boycott against unclean pictures affects the box office sufficiently the exhibitors will cease showing such pictures and the producers will stop making them.

WHAT IS GLENDALE?

What is Glendale? Not merely a group of human beings dwelling together. Glendale people are of a high order, but there are good people in other places. Not simply a geographical point, a place. Glendale's location is marvelous for scenic loveliness, but other cities have beautiful settings too. Not merely the homes, the schools, the churches, the stores. Glendale is rich in the number and the character of her buildings, but so are many other cities. Glendale is more than its physical aspects, those things which are visible.

Glendale is like a person, made up of hundreds of influences and agencies that have touched him directly or indirectly, before birth and after, and made him different, gave him soul, personality, individuality.

No city has a prouder heritage. Glendale's origin goes back to the days of romance in California, the Mission days, and Glendale as a city has absorbed something of this. Her history and her memories are a part of her. Her first settlers and founders were men of courage, hardihood, and high principle, as are nearly all pioneers, and they bequeathed to Glendale something of their own nature. Men and women of vision and of perseverance in the face of odds came later and gave Glendale something of themselves. She is influenced by the spirit and power of all who have come that they might live in an ideal spot, and of those who are still coming. The economic forces that are at work to make her a great city and the intellectual and spiritual influences of a highly cultured citizenship are helping not a little to shape her character.

Glendale's personality is the result of many things and diverse forces. National and world events even have their part in moulding her. She is fortunate in having been envied in the past by so many agencies that were favorable. It is the duty of us who are a part of Glendale and who are guiding her destiny to keep these auspicious influences paramount.

Two negroes were lynched for violating womanhood. If we killed all the white men who commit that crime, at what figure would you place the total?

CONVENTION SESSION AS SPORT CARTOONIST SORDS SAW IT

Just Like Him

By DR. FRANK CRANE

When a lady left $75,000 worth of jewelry in a taxicab the other day, the chauffeur, John Joseph Cody, turned it over to the police, didn't steal it, and forgot to tell his wife. He said:

"I didn't think anything about it."
She said:
"That was just like John."

A man's conscience works automatically, if he has one.

If he has not one, all the reasoning in the world will not give him one.

Instinctively, John Cody turned the valuables over to a policeman.

When news was brought to his wife she first asked: "Has John been hurt?" and burst into tears of relief on being informed that all was well with John. Then she said:

"It was the only thing he could have done. But it was just like John. Won't his father and mother be proud of him? They are in Ireland, you know."

As for John himself, he turned over the piskin case containing $75,000 worth of jewelry to the nearest policeman in as ordinary a way as he would have turned over an old umbrella that had been left behind.

Mrs. Cody has every reason to be proud of John. His action shows that he values his good name and the welfare of his family above any kind of reward. He has the quality that is demanded in every form of business and politics. We may talk as much as we please, but what is asked for in the great world is honesty and simplicity of character above shrewdness of intelligence.

From the highest office in the land to the lowest, the demand is for conscience, and a conscience that will work smoothly and automatically and not one that needs to be buttressed up by reason.

For, after all, it is conscience that keeps the social compact together. It is conscience that keeps us all from quarreling continually like cats and dogs.

It is conscience that gives men faith in their leaders. The ability to make one's word as good as his bond is better than any other kind of ability.

It is conscience that is the rock upon which civilization is founded and the more it is developed, the stronger is the fabric we have built.

Horoscope

According to astrology, this is an uncertain day. While Jupiter and Mercury are in benefic aspect early in the morning, the Sun, Neptune and Mars are adverse later.

Under this sway the impetus toward mercantile pursuits should be strong, and with it there should be a wise appreciation of the value of advertising.

Men who seek public favor will do well to use the newspapers wisely at this time, when opinions are supposed to be easily changed.

This is an unfavorable rule for all who seek any sort of preferment, since those who wield power are likely to be arrogant and difficult to impress with even the best arguments.

It is not a lucky day for those who seek employment, no matter whether in high place or low.

Mathematicians and all who deal in abstruse problems should benefit in the early hours of this day.

Mars gives warning of war rumors in Europe, and much discussion of military matters in this country.

No promise of more settled world conditions appears in the message of the stars at this time.

There will be a constant growth of interest in international affairs and much study of important world issues in the next three months.

The seers give the admonition to all men and women to read in each day's passing events the trend of times in which supreme tests of humanity are to take place.

Women at this period of the year probably will manifest the greatest extremes of good and evil, the spiritual and the material contending for dominion in their natures.

Men should be most wise and circumspect in their attitude toward the opposite sex, if they would avoid much distress and real trouble, astrologers declare.

Worth While Verse

LAST NIGHT

I sat with one I love last night,
She sang to me an olden strain;
In former times it woke delight,
Last night—but pain.

Last night we saw the stars arise,
But clouds soon dimmed the ether blue;
But when we sought the other's eyes
Tears dimmed them too!

We paced along our favorite walk,
But paced in silence broken-hearted;
Of old we used to smile and talk;
Last night—we parted.

—George Darley.

Good Old Days, Then And Now

There have been great changes in the methods by which we entertain and amuse ourselves in the last thirty years. Take our music for example. Good music is always good music and we like it just as well today as we did then. But the popular song, the song of the day, is even more senseless now than it was in that day. Then it was nearly always sickeningly sentimental, now it is utterly devoid of meaning and the moaning and the wailing of the saxophone that we hear so much today would have scared us to death then.

On very infrequent occasions we attended magic lantern entertainments. These were instructive as well as entertaining. They were usually travelogues and we thrilled as we saw pictures of far-distant places which the exhibitor described monotonously as the change was made on the screen. A far cry from the news events and dramas pictured on the screen today. Of course there were the theatres and vaudeville houses in the cities but the small town had to be content with the occasional traveling stock company, the magic lantern entertainment, the lyceum course, the small circus and the home talent concert and entertainment. Today some people attend the theatre nearly every night in the week. Then we had no such opportunity and we should have been shocked at the thought of spending so much time and money for amusement.

Motoring has become a universal diversion and we think nothing of a few hours' spin and little more of a trip across the continent. In the good old days we made the longer trip by train and the shorter one behind a horse or a team of horses. Some of the more aristocratic of us took up bicycling for amusement and we thought nothing of organizing a party for a ten mile spin.

Croquet was a lady-like outdoor sport in that day. How our good taste would have been offended to see the woman tennis or golf player in her short skirt and loose clothing or her knickerbockers or breeches. Horseback riding is a sport for women as well as men today. Then it was an accomplishment, for the ladies wore long, flowing skirts and used side saddles.

We had picnics in those days but even the nature of a picnic has changed. Then we drove to some lovely spot in the woods and spent the day, spreading a bounteous luncheon on the grass at noon and making coffee over a camp fire. Now we take a day's drive and stop along the roadside just long enough to eat our sandwiches and drink our coffee or lemonade from a thermos bottle.

It is all a matter of opinion as to whether our tastes have improved in the way we amuse ourselves or not. But it is safe to say that the young people of today would not be content with an occasional picnic or hay ride, a magic lantern show and a circus once a year, playing croquet in summer and on winter evenings gathering around the organ and singing. Wait till the sun shines Nelly, "Pen Bolt," "Down on the Suwanee River," and "My darling Nellie Gray."

COMMENT That's All

P. E. Sets Example
Rivet Guns Rattling
A Changed Attitude
The Films' Failure

By Gil A. Cowan

The Second street tunnel in Los Angeles should be ready for traffic within the next few days. It will do much to ameliorate congestion to and from Glendale over the shortest motor route into the metropolitan business district.

It has been a long time since that tunnel was begun. As the "colymists" say, it is the longest bore in the world, speaking of the time taken in putting the project through, both from legal and structural standpoints.

Now that it is to be used, thanks should be given, for traffic conditions in the Third street tunnel and on Sixth street, which is only a narrow lane, have become deplorable.

Compare the action of the municipality in undertaking an enterprise such as the Second street tunnel and the speed with which the Pacific Electric and its contractor are making with the new Glendale subway.

They are digging into Crown hill as though they meant business. That's how a private corporation goes after things. And the city is just learning that it may be more desirable to have the Pacific Electric Glendale-Hollywood terminus under ground on Olive street between Fifth and Sixth streets.

That will give Glendale an entrance to the Biltmore hotel, almost.

As this is being written the rattle of the riveters in the stilly hours of night can be heard on the new $60,000 addition to the Glendale exchange of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. They are losing no time in providing housing for additional facilities necessary to keep pace with "the fastest growing city in America."

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company can be complimented on their expansion program, for while they have had insurmountable problems to meet here they have exhibited real interest in serving the public as efficiently as could be expected under the circumstances.

If they had not, this comment would not be written.

It is noticeable that in recent years public utility corporations have adopted an entirely different attitude than was noticed a decade ago, and before. One sometimes wonders what caused this change of heart.

To the writer it is simply nothing more or less than the realization that the people actually are the owners of the utilities. They are the stockholders and consumers. The bondholders employ the executives as their trustees. It is up to them to serve the public efficiently and courteously.

Why, it wasn't ten years ago that the Los Angeles Gas and Electric corporation was being called "hard-boiled," "calloused" and so on. Now you read of public inspections of their plants, large subscriptions to their issues of stock and a generally improved service.

Fact of the matter, public opinion has brought the corporations to a realization that service is the keynote of success.

And you cannot say the same of the Congress of these United States.

Selfish interests still pervade Washington.

Politicians would do well to learn a lesson from big business.

Big business learns costly lessons, by the way. Motion pictures are one of the greatest products of this southland.

Of late there have been numerous failures in film, the public and the critics alike finding many of the features not worth even the time taken to look at them.

A leader in the industry comes forth with the statement that most of the failures are due to the directors who are forced to make photoplays in which they have no interest. But they carry on the work under contract and, like stars who are miscast, their only aim is to draw salary.

No wonder the films fail as a box office attraction.

Councilman Davis introduced a resolution entitled, "A resolution of the Council of the city of Glendale, adopting Specifications No. 74 for the construction of asphaltic concrete pavement within said city laid in one course," which was read and, on his motion, seconded by Councilman Hall, the same was numbered Resolution No. 2453 and adopted.

Challenges And Problems Of Life Form Theme Of Dexter's Talk To Pupils

school and college life. He who appreciates friends will appreciate humanity in all its aspects and will be able to sympathize with the difficulties and rejoice in its achievements.

After outlining the challenges that would be facing the graduate by the world, Dr. Dexter continued: "Measure yourself by your record in the past. You will be required to meet men and women who will seem superior, but your challenge should be the surpassing of your own record. The truly educated members of the class of 1924 will view the world from their record of yesterday and the tomorrow will bring them success. You have made an investment in scholarship that should enable you to meet these challenges which you will find waiting you on all sides. Set out with the ideal you have chosen, and the tools of education that you have received to meet the challenge in a way that will lead to success. Take out into the spirit of society and religion and find some of the spirit of friendship and the educational investment gained in these buildings, and your battle is won."

Graduates Enter

Led by two junior girls, Alice Duedy and Beryl Goodale, the graduates marched slowly down the aisles to the strains of the "Aida March," played by the high school orchestra and took their places on the stage at 8:15 o'clock. The girls were beautifully costumed in white and carried bouquets of red rose buds. The boys wore white trousers and dark coats.

The overture "Stradella" (Fleisler) by the orchestra followed by two numbers by the senior boys' glee club "Gypsy Song" (Pearls) and "Winter Song" (Ballard). Two piano duets "Country Dance" (Nevin) and "Polonaise Militaire" (Chopin) were rendered by Amy Bainbridge and Emilie Collins. A mixed quartet composed of Winifred Parker, Mildred Sooy, Elmer Fitz, and Irvin Carver then sang "By the Waters of the Minnetonka" (Lleurance) and "The Woodland Calls" (Rays-Herbert).

Following the address by Dr. Dexter, Lucile Allen and Thomas Wood gave two violin duets, "Pastorale" (Godard) and "Midnight" (Godard). The presentation of the class memorial was made by Theodore Haig, class president. The seniors are erecting a fountain in the court of the new buildings and made a substantial money gift to the school.

Presents Students
Following numbers by the senior girls' glee club, the "June Rhapsody" (Daniels) and "Boats of Mine" (Miller), Principal George U. Morse made the presentation of the class, congratulating them on the completion of their work and on the splendid records of the class in high school activities. The presentation of diplomas was made by Albert D. Pearce, president of the board of trustees.

The auditorium was completely filled except for a few scattered seats by 8 o'clock, and many stood in the rear during the exercises. The graduating class this year surpassed any previous class in size, and the commencement exercises were the most impressive ever given for a class graduating from the Glendale high school. The seniors seated on the stage in the head of over- the- head lights presented a pleasing picture to the audience seated below. The graduates:

PLAN PICNIC IN VALLEY SATURDAY

Presbyterian Church School To Enjoy Annual Event At Sunland Park

Old and young of the Sunday church school at the Glendale Presbyterian church are urged to take part tomorrow in the annual picnic in the Sunland park. The picnicers will meet at 1:30 o'clock at the church. Transportation for everyone will be furnished.

Rex C. Kelley, Dr. Norman Paine and H. B. White of the recreation committee, have planned a program of interesting events, among which will be several ball games, featured by one between the elders and teachers. The lunch committee is soliciting contributions, rather than donations from those planning to attend. Lunch will be served in the old fashioned style. Community singing will be a feature of the lunch hour.

Girl Evangelist to Appear In Glendale

Glendale is to hear a girl evangelist tonight, tomorrow night and Sunday morning in the gospel tent at Irving street and Glenwood road, in the Fairview addition. Norma Ealey, 11-year-old evangelist, is to be the speaker to- night and tomorrow night and on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. She is coming down from her home in Modesto to visit friends in Pasadena, so her engagements in Glendale were made possible.

Nelsons Visit Friends
Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nelson stopped off for a day in Denver, after visiting the Grand Canyon. After visiting with Glendale and southern California friends here attending the convention, Dr. and Mrs. Nelson continued their eastward journey.

H. M. Parker left this morning for Colorado Springs, where he will view the wonders of nature surrounding that thriving city, including Pike's Peak, Cave of the Winds, Seven Falls, Garden of the Gods and Manitou.

Lieutenant Governor Fred Deal and his wife will return to Glendale via the Royal Gorge and Salt Lake City. Your correspondents will leave tonight for Des Moines.

Delegates Escape Injury In Wreck

LA SALLE, Colo., June 20.—Two colored porters were slightly injured late last night when a section of the Pacific Coast Limited, crack Union Pacific train, west-bound, crashed into a string of freight cars as the passenger train left the station here. The Limited carried scores of delegates to the Kiwanis International convention in Denver, who were returning to their homes in Los Angeles and other California cities. None of the passengers was hurt.

IOWA OBJECTS TO FIGHT ON KENYON

trust-controlled products should not be given special privileges. Mr. Mellon's large holdings in the aluminum trust would have suffered by putting aluminum on the free list. At that time, of course, Mr. Mellon had a right as a private citizen to fight for a protective tariff on his own products.

But what sticks in the craw of the people here is that just a week before the Cleveland convention the secretary of the treasury sent the Senate a list including the name of Judge Kenyon as among those who had practiced before government departments since leaving the Senate. It so happens that Kenyon resigned from the Senate one day and became United States circuit court judge on the next day. The

Thanks Assistants For Help In Fiesta

Mrs. Roy Ballagh, president of the Glendale Fiesta Association, is desirous of expressing thanks to Walter L. Cheever and Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker for their assistance in the recent fiesta. Mr. Cheever made the artistic June bug and Mrs. Ocker was in charge of the fortune-telling booth.

treasury department admitted its error, blaming it on something in the directory of lawyers. Judge Kenyon's letter to Senator Brookhart on the subject, which has been put into the official record, rather caustic about the "mistake." He says:

Scores Mistake
"I understand the charge was made by the secretary of the treasury on the strength of a firm name, 'Kenyon, Kallagher and Mitchell,' being found in some law directory. There never was such a law firm. I had no knowledge of such name ever appearing in any law directory. It would seem to me that before making such charges against a United States senator or a federal judge that the secretary of the treasury would have had some better evidence. On account of the restraints properly imposed on a judicial officer I cannot characterize this conduct in the language it deserves. I should be glad to believe it was merely a mistake."

When Kenyon was in the Senate he made a farewell speech denouncing those who had voted for Senator Newberry of Michigan, whose seat was contested because of charges of corrupt use of funds in the election. Many of the senators he then opposed have since been defeated for office. Some of them were delegates to the Cleveland convention and blocked any consideration in their delegations of the name of the Iowa senator.

All this has provoked Iowa newspapers to ask whether the Republican convention was determined to ignore the West, or whether it really knows that the men who were hissed at Cleveland, men like Senator Brookhart of Iowa, Senator Harris of Nebraska and Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin have been nominated by large majorities in regular Republican primaries and that they control the destinies of the Republican parties in their states.

One of the leading newspapers in Central Iowa, the Des Moines Register, carries an editorial denouncing Secretary Mellon's part in blocking the Kenyon nomination, saying:

"It will make all the difference in the world whether it is to be President Coolidge, as director, general or President Coolidge steered and directed by Secretary Mellon."

There is a good deal of sympathy in the West for President Coolidge in his effort to select a Progressive for vice-president, but a growing anxiety about the influences that surround him, and already in this region there are indications that Secretary Mellon, himself, may be talked about a good deal on the stump in the autumn campaign as an exemplification of the conservative interests which have the upper hand in the councils of the Republican party. Iowa looks upon the Kenyon episode as a test between Progressivism and old-fashioned stand-patism, and, judging from its present temper, will not soon forget how her favorite son was punished for his leadership in this farm bloc, his fight against Newberry and tariff privileges.

PHYSICIAN TESTS Y.M.C.A. CAMPERS

Secretary Outlines Program Of Recreation To Be Held at Catalina

Every Glendale boy, who is anticipating attending the Y. M. C. A. summer camp at Catalina island, is being given a thorough physical examination by Dr. John Anderson, who is to be the physician in residence in the camp during the outing.

These boats will be used for rowing and also during the swimming periods. There are to be three swimming periods daily, one five-minute period before breakfast, and two thirty-minute periods before dinner and supper.

MANY EVENTS ON CLUB'S CALENDAR

House Warming, Dance and Installation Are Planned During Next Week

TUJUNGA, June 20.—The Tujunga Women's club calendar of coming events has many affairs listed that are keenly anticipated by the members and their friends.

Monday, June 23, the club will hold an informal reception in the new clubhouse on San Ysidro street. This will be in the nature of a housewarming, as it will be the first meeting in the new home of the club. Work is being rushed on the structure to insure completion by next Monday. All women's clubs of the San Fernando valley have been invited. There will be a brief program of entertainment.

Tuesday, June 24, the club will give a dancing party in the new clubhouse. These dances have been given heretofore in Masonic hall on Sunset boulevard, and the club members and their friends have found them very pleasant affairs, and they are anticipating many happy gatherings in their own building.

Final Meeting
The final meeting of the club year, Thursday, June 26, will see the incoming executive officers installed. It is the custom of the members to have a picnic each year at this time, and this will be combined with a short business session on this date. At the picnic the members of the club living west of Sunset will be the guests of the members living east of Sunset. This treat is the reward agreed upon by both sections for the section which succeeded in raising the most money during the year for the building fund. The two divisions held cooked food sales and luncheons alternately, and the west side ladies succeeded in raising $11 more than their rivals. Mrs. Jones retires from the presidency with over $1000 additional funds credited to her term of office. The club will adjourn at this meeting until the month of October.

GUESTS PRESENT AT CAFE OPENING

Artistic Decorations Mark Kopper Kettle Cafe on N. Brand Boulevard

The formal opening of the Kopper Kettle, located at 328 North Brand boulevard, was held last Wednesday night when over 100 Glendadians visited this unique cafe and tea room.

Blue and copper shades have been artistically employed in the decorative scheme. The small blue tables are attractively decorated with copper kettles and the walls and draperies are also carried out in the same soft blue and copper shades.

Mrs. M. Hubbard and Mrs. F. E. Brown, proprietors, plan to cater especially to afternoon teas, parties, club luncheons and dinner parties. Luncheons and evening dinners will be served daily.

Wednesday night a turkey dinner was served and a radio donated by the Brown Radio company furnished the evening's musical program.

FIRE WIPES OUT GROCERY MARKET

Sudden Outburst of Flame Is Laid to Explosion; Loss Totals $4100

Fire shortly after midnight completely destroyed the Fairview grocery and market at the corner of Western avenue and Fourth street, causing a loss of $4100, practically all of which was reported covered by insurance. The owner is C. E. Killion, who lives in Montrose.

The alarm was turned in at 12:25 o'clock and answered by engine 3, truck 1 and the roadster. At 1:10 o'clock the fire was reported out.

From the suddenness with which the fire appeared, witnesses believe it to have been the result of an explosion. The flames appeared to come from all directions at once, fairly bursting apart the small brick and frame structure.

MONTROSE NOTES

Three of the Sparr Heights children, Bob Hicks, Henry Copeland and William M. Rea, who have been ill with measles, are now convalescing.

A. F. Hopkins is able to be out after his recent illness.

Mrs. R. Gregg is recovering from her recent minor operation but will not return to her Montrose home till she is much stronger.

A number of the La Crescenta Women's club members motored to the Plintridge home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hansen to hear Mrs. Willoughby Rodman speak "Intimate Peeps at Great People." Mrs. Rodman spoke of the home life of the past and present crowned heads of Europe, singling out the king of Belgium as the most admirable. Proceeds from the talk were to be divided equally between the Russian refugee students and local philanthropic needs. At the conclusion of the talk punch was served the guests.

Mrs. E. Scanlon, proprietor of the Montrose Dry Goods store, is now settled in her new quarters in the new brick block, the home of the first Seelig store in the valley.

Paving of Montrose avenue is being accomplished in record time, the upper east end now being tarred and rolled. The lower end is ploughed and dragged as far west as a block east of Los Angeles boulevard. A fully signed petition will be presented to the county supervisors to appropriate funds to complete the work as promised as far west as Pennsylvania avenue.

CRESCENTA NOTES

Mrs. Elizabeth Watteil has been spending the week at her beach cottage in Hermosa Beach.

Mrs. E. Burkey is visiting at the Fairbanks home on Kenneth Road, Glendale, for a fortnight. Little Miss Nancy Findlay is sick at her parents' home on Alhambra avenue.

Ruth Reynolds visited her old school friends at the La Crescenta school yesterday. Miss Reynolds has attended the school for the past two years, but is now residing in Venice.

Mrs. Mary B. Darrow was a guest yesterday at the reception given by Mrs. Joseph F. Satori at her Los Angeles home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Van Deusen and family will spend the weekend at their beach cottage in Laguna.

BATHING SUITS

NEW YORK, June 20.—The newest bathing suits button up the front instead of slipping over the head. They may be as vivid as you please, but among the most chic are those in plain black satin with a long row of black buttons down the front and a collar in Roman striped taffeta.

OPERETTA TO BE PROGRAM EVENT

Wilson Graduates to Receive Diplomas Tonight From Judge H. W. Chase

Graduates of the Wilson intermediate school will receive their diplomas at the commencement exercises at 8 o'clock tonight in the auditorium of the Broadway high school. The principal feature of the program other than the presentation of the diplomas will be the operetta "Hiawatha's Childhood," by Whitley, given by the music students of the graduating class.

This delightful Indian legend will be told with songs and dances in three scenes. Miss Mildred Hughey and Miss Ada Sallstrom, who have directed the production, say that the pupils are prepared to give an excellent presentation of the operetta. Elaborate costumes for the affair have been prepared under the direction of Miss Helen Buck and Miss Mary Circle.

Allot Solo Parts

The story opens with Hiawatha as a boy and tells of his adventures in youth and manhood, closing with his death in the forest. Solo parts will be taken by Evelyn Young, Doris Carver, Elma Mitchell, Mary Nell Hall, Clifford Lawton, and Jane Thimm. They will be supported by a chorus of Indian maids and braves. Miss Mary Circle will be the accompanist.

The 206 graduates will march into the auditorium and take their places following the operetta. The presentation of the class gift will then be made by Frank Wyckoff. Harry W. Chase, member of the board of education, will present the diplomas to the graduates. The exercises will be closed with the singing of the class song.

Numbers by the Wilson orchestra will be given before and after the operetta. They will include the "Dance of the Crickets" (Seredy), "Petite Suite" (Gluck) and "In Olden Days" (Senkins).

HONOR RETIRING P. T. A. PRESIDENT

Installation of Officers to Follow Luncheon and Presentation

TUJUNGA, June 20.—With Mrs. B. B. Reynolds, retiring president, presiding, the Tujunga Parent-Teacher association met Wednesday in the final session of the current school year and installed officers for the coming year.

A luncheon preceded the business meeting, at which three women from Palmdale and Mrs. E. T. Theobald of Tujunga were guests of honor. Mrs. H. B. Lynch, successor to Mrs. Reynolds as president, presented Mrs. Reynolds with a basket of ferns, tied in the association colors, as a complimentary token from the executive board. Mrs. Sullivan presented to Mrs. Reynolds a silver sandwich tray, a gift from the Reading Circle of the association.

Mrs. Reynolds then complimented Mrs. E. T. Theobald by presenting to her a past-president's pin as a mark of the esteem in which the association holds Mrs. Theobald for her many services.

Business Meeting
Following the luncheon reports of committees and other current business was disposed of, and the incoming officers were then installed. The new officers are: Mrs. H. B. Lynch, president; Mrs. M. E. Glueck, vice-president; Mrs. George Barnaby, recording secretary; Mrs. H. W. Huntington, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. A. Doane, treasurer; Mrs. Alice Carr, historian.

Was skeptical of Kellogg's Bran until it gave him back his health

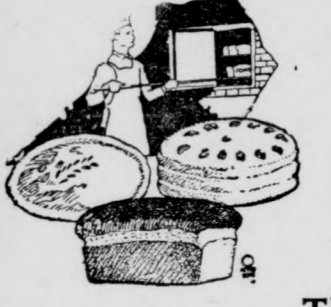

Naturally Mr. Carter—whose letter follows—was skeptical. He had tried practically everything for the relief of constipation. All had failed. But Kellogg's Bran brought him permanent relief, just as it has done for thousands of others. Read his letter:

Gentlemen: I am 49 years old, and have been for years a great sufferer from constipation. I had to resign a clerical position because of rushes of blood to my head, some of which caused me to fall to the ground. I took an outdoor laboring job and tried for the first time, skeptically I admit, your Krumbled Bran. The result has been wonderful. I began to be normal after I had been on the Bran about three days. No more enemas, no more Old Dr. So-and-So's Pills, Epsom salts by the ton, etc., ad infinitum! You have the most wonderful product for constipation I have ever seen or tried. Yours very gratefully, L. T. Carter, 294 Nineteenth St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, does not irritate the intestines like drugs and pills. It acts exactly as nature acts. Eaten regularly, it is guaranteed to relieve permanently the most chronic case of constipation, or your grocer will return your money.

You will like the exclusive, nut-like flavor of Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases with every meal. Eat it with milk or cream and in the recipes on every package. Sold by all grocers. Made in Battle Creek.

The Case of Jennie Brice Serial Story
By MARY ROBERTS RINEHART. Copyright, 1924.

XXIII—ALMA AGAIN
That night when Miss Eliza went home, about half past eight, the woman was gone. She had paid for her room and had been driven as far as Thornville, where all trace of her had been lost. On account of the disappearance of Jennie Brice being published shortly after that, she and her mother had driven to Thornville, but the station agent there was as surly as well as stupid. They had learned nothing about the woman.

Since that time three men had made inquiries about the woman in question. One had a pointed Van Dyke beard; the second, from the description, I fancied must have been Mr. Graves. The third without doubt was Mr. Howell. Eliza Schaeffer said that this last man had seemed h if frantic. I brought her a photograph of Jennie Brice as "Topsy" and another one as "Juliet." She said there was a resemblance, but that it ended there. But of course, as Mr. Graves had said, by the time an actress gets her photograph retouched to suit her, it doesn't particularly resemble her. And unless I had known Jennie Brice myself, I should hardly have recognized the pictures.

Well, in spite of all that, there seemed no doubt that Jennie Brice had been living three days after her disappearance, and that would clear Mr. Ladley. But what had Mr. Howell to do with it all? Why had he not told the police of the letter from Horner? Or about the woman on the bridge? Why had Mr. Bronson, who was likely the man with the pointed beard, said nothing about having traced Jennie Brice to Horner?

I did as I thought Mr. Holcombe would have wished me to do. I wrote down on a clean sheet of note-paper all that Eliza Schaeffer said: The description of the black and white dress, the woman's height and the rest, and then I took her to the courthouses, chicks and all, and she told her story there to one of the assistant district attorneys.

The young man was interested, but not convinced. He had her story taken down and she signed it. He was smiling as he bowed us out. I turned in the doorway. "This will free Mr. Ladley, I suppose?" I asked.

"Not just yet," he said pleasantly. "This makes just eleven places where Jennie Brice spent the first three days of her death."

"But I can positively identify the dress."

"My good woman, that dress has been described, to the last

"East is West," the romantic comedy-drama now showing every night at 8 o'clock at the tent of Murphy's Comedians on Stocker street, Casa Verdugo, between Brand boulevard and Central avenue, is proving the biggest hit yet staged by these popular players.

J. A. Menard, manager of Murphy's Comedians, has gathered a splendid cast for this production and patrons of the tent are assured of seeing the play under the most favorable circumstances. Those who wish front seats are advised to come as soon after 7:15 o'clock as possible.

Those who have seen the play in New York or elsewhere know it contains the romance of a young American business man and pretty Chinese girl. "So turns out in the end to be also an American. Naturally he has to contend with a villain, but this particular villain is a novel variety of the breed and keeps things lively throughout the play.

Howell was here once, just after I saw you.
"Perhaps not, although—Mrs. Pitman, I believe he is in the city, hiding!"
"Hiding? Why?"
"I don't know. But last night I thought I saw him below my window. I opened the window, so if it were he, he could make some sign. But he moved on without a word. Later, whoever it was, came back. I put out my light and watched. Someone stood there in the shadow, until after two this morning. Part of the time he was looking up."

"Don't you think, had it been he, he would have spoken when he saw you?"
She shook her head. "He is in trouble," she said. "He has not heard from me, and he—thinks I don't care any more. Just look at me, Mrs. Pitman! Do I look as if I don't care?"

"THE GATEWAY"
"A Son of the Sahara" is at the Gateway Theatre today and Saturday.

"THE T. D. & L."
"Conductor 1492" with Johnny Hines continues at the T. D. & L. Theatre today and Saturday.

"THE GLENDALE"
"The Night Hawk" with Harry Carey is the feature picture at the Glendale Theatre today and Saturday. In addition there is vaudeville.

"PLAYS VAMP ROLE"
Claire de Lorez plays a vampire role in Priscilla Dean's "The Siren of Seville."

"FINISHES 'TOUGH' ROLE"
"Captain Fearless" Reginald Denny's latest starring vehicle for Universal, has just been completed by James W. Horne. "Captain Fearless" was a rather lively hero, with all sorts of athletic stunts, fighting and burlesque of battle to do. It was what is known professionally as a "tough role," one in which the life is not easy nor the hours short.

"LOTS OF THEATRES"
Despite the fact that New York has nearly sixty theatres, there are still those who believe that the number is not large enough. Already under construction, of course, is Martin Beck's West Side theatre, in Forty-fifth street, and the Theater Guild has definitely committed itself to the building of a playhouse in Fifty-second. In addition, two playhouses are planned for Broadway and Eighth avenue. For one of these, it is said, Mr. Ziegfeld has already offered an annual rental of $85,000.

She sat there in the cozy corner the school teacher had made with a portiere and some cushions, and I saw she was about ready to break down and cry. I went over to her and took her hand, for she was my own niece, although she didn't suspect it, and I had never had a child of my own.

But, after all, I could not help her much. I could only assure her that he would come back and explain everything, and that he was all right and that the last time I had seen him he had spoken of her and had said she was "the best ever." My heart fairly yearned over the girl and I think she felt it. For she kissed me, shyly, when she was leaving. Tomorrow—"He was a Fiend!"

No. I knew she could not. Alma had once found a letter of mine to Mr. Pitman. Very little escaped Alma.

"I wondered if you have heard anything," she asked.

"I have heard nothing. Mr.

"CAP" STUBBS—Gran'ma's Tired Of That Argument

THE BAXTER BEASLEYS—

Uncle Wiggily

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE PAPER GUN
Uncle Wiggily stopped on the news stand on the edge of the woods and bought himself an evening paper to take home to his hollow stump bungalow.

"I'll read the bedtime story and see what sort of an adventure I may be going to have tomorrow," chuckled the rabbit gentleman as he folded the paper and put it in his pocket. "I'll let Nurse Jane look at the funny pictures," he went on, as he began hopping a bit faster, for it was getting late and he knew his muskrat lady housekeeper did not like to keep supper waiting.

Mr. Longears was in the middle of the woods, hopping quietly along the path and twinkling his pink nose, when, all of a sudden, he heard a noise.

"Under what that was?" whispered the rabbit gentleman to himself as he looked for a place to hide in case the Fuzzy Fox or the Woozie Wolf should spring out at him. But he saw neither of these bad chaps. Instead, out of the bushes walked Jackie Bow Wow, waving his tail.

"Oh, hello, Jackie!" called Uncle Wiggily. "Where are you going so near supper time?"

"I'm not going, I'm coming," barked Jackie.

"Coming from where?" asked the rabbit.

"Coming from school," answered the little dog boy.

"Coming from school at this time of day?" cried Uncle Wiggily. "Why, how is that, Jackie?"

"The Lady Mouse Teacher doesn't generally keep the boys and girls in as long as this. What was the trouble?"

"I had to stay in," said Jackie, sort of drooping his tail down between his hind legs.

"Stay in? What for? To help the Lady Mouse clean off the blackboards?" asked the rabbit.

Jackie shook his head sort of ashamed like.

"I—now—I had to stay in—now—because I made a paper gun."

"You made a paper gun—in school?" cried Uncle Wiggily in surprise.

"Yes, and I—now—I shot it, too," said Jackie, and this time he seemed just a little bit proud of himself.

"What do you mean—you shot a paper gun in school?" asked the rabbit uncle.

"It was like this," Jackie answered. "I had a piece of paper. I folded it and creased it and made a paper gun, or snapper, out of it. I held it in my paw, and I snapped it down, and it made a noise like when you blow a paper bag up full of air and burst it. That's what I did."

"Um," murmured Uncle Wiggily. "And what did the Lady Mouse do when you shot the paper gun?"

"She jumped up in the air and squealed," said Jackie, and he could hardly keep from smiling.

"And, what did the other boys and girls in school do?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"Oh, they laughed," said Jackie.

"And then the Lady Mouse Teacher made you come up to her desk, and she took the paper gun away from you and made you stay in, didn't she?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"Yes, but how did you know?"

Diet And Health

ANSWERS TO MOTHERS

Constipation in Children
The correction of chronic constipation in children depends mostly upon: 1. The habit of going to the toilet at a definite time; 2. Correct diet; 3. Exercise.

I'll discuss the first. The most effective time is probably after breakfast. If there are three or four children in the house and only one toilet, this is a problem, but you must manage some way, for perhaps have a definite time for each child. Don't allow them to take any books or toys with them, as this should not be a playtime. Strict attention must be paid to business on hand and distracting the attention is oftentimes the cause of failure. Don't have the toilet known as the library.

Babies can be taught as early as the second month to control the bowels, if they are placed on a little vessel held in the mother's lap, twice a day. This regularity taught in babyhood is the best training for the bowels in childhood.

Second: Diet—Special laxative foods are as follows: Most all fruits, especially figs, prunes; among cereals, oatmeal, whole and cracked wheat, cooked bran, bran bread, shredded wheat; and practically all of the fresh vegetables are laxatives. The child should have a full cup of vegetables, especially green leafy vegetables, part of them raw; a full cup of fruit, part fresh; whole wheat breads and whole grain cereals. If this diet does not furnish enough residue, then bran should be taken with the cereals or in the bread.

Water drinking is important, not only to prevent constipation, but for proper growth. Two or three glasses between meals should be taken in addition to what is taken at the meals. Many children do not drink enough water.

Third: Exercise—Special exercises for the abdominal muscles are valuable and special exercises for correct posture are important. Massage is also of value. Where there are large flabby abdomens with probably dilated stomachs and intestines, snug abdominal bandages are of value.

The habitual use of physics is undoubtedly unwise. Occasionally the use of a physic seems war-

During the meeting in the afternoon Dr. Jessie A. Russell gave brief reports of the state and biennial conventions.

Announcement was made that from July 19 to 26 there will be a business exposition at the corner of Ricketts and our list of morning books on Child and Infant Feeding.

My Dear Followers:—When sending for material which we offer you please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must enclose four cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 200 words, and type them. Write the legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual answers to the questions asked as soon as possible, if they are of general interest. Don't forget to ask me if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

Invited Guests

Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Mrs. Harry S. McCormack and Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson of Glendale were among the invited guests at the luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. Joseph F. Sartori, chairman of the local biennial board at her home, 725 West Twenty-eighth street.

The guest of honor was Mrs. John D. Sherman, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs.

According to Mrs. Hutchinson it was a most happy gathering of women who were associated during the biennial convention. Committee chairmen and members of the local board were invited for the luncheon and the afternoon others who assisted during the biennial were received.

Mrs. John G. Huntley of Glendale was in attendance at the reception.

Studio Picnic

One of the interesting social events of the week was the studio picnic enjoyed yesterday by members of the Travel department, of which Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker is curator, and the Fine Arts department, of which Mrs. Roy A. Ballagh is curator.

A large number of members of both departments met at the clubhouse at 1930 o'clock and motored to Brookside park, where a delicious picnic dinner was enjoyed.

The afternoon was devoted to visiting studios of three well-known artists. The first studio they visited was that of Gene Mannheim in the Arroyo Seco, who specializes in desert scenes. The Pasadena High school has just recently purchased one of his desert scenes for the school auditorium.

They next visited Paul Smith's studio on Oakland avenue, Pasadena. Here they viewed a number of wonderful paintings.

Benjamin F. Brown's studio was next visited. Mr. Brown is the artist of the prize-winning painting, "The Witchery of Winter," recently purchased by the Federation of Women's clubs. Mr. Brown presented the women with an autographed photograph of this painting and also a photograph of himself. He gave an instructive and interesting talk, explaining the difference between a sketch and a study.

Those from the Fine Arts department attending were Mesdames Roy A. Ballagh, C. W. Houston, Arthur Cross, Bion S. Warner, James F. Armstrong and niece Juanita Mae Nichols. The Travel department members were Mesdames Mabel Franklin Ocker, Eva Cleophas, Gibson Kelly, W. E. Lusby, Thomas G. Widmeyer, Lloyd Wilson, Donald E. Baxter, L. F. Thiessen.

Chats On Beauty

By EDNA KENT FORBES

FEED THE FINGER NAILS

There is an excellent formula for nails that are fragile or that are ridged or fluted. It was made up by a physician and is highly recommended by him. It is as follows:

Powdered resin 40 grains
White wax 100 grains
Almond Oil ¼ ounce
Powdered alum 35 grains
Table salt 40 grains
The oil wax and resin are melted in a saucepan, very gently, so they just blend. Keep them at this heat and add the alum and salt. Judge that this same heat a moment longer, then pour off into an old cold cream jar and stir with a tiny stick until the mixture cools and hardens. Rub this lotion into the nails, under and around them, too, three or four times a week.

If the nails are very thin and break too easily or tear off, it is from lack of lime in the system. Ask your doctor whether you can add lime to your drinking water—but don't try it without his advice, for the lime used in drinking water is quite different from the lime used in whitewashing.

If the nails seem dry, use oil or lard on them. You can tell by the dull look of the nails themselves and by the dryness of the skin immediately around them. In such a case, you want a good thick grease to rub in, something that is all oil, all to be absorbed. Lard is excellent for that. And always, in such cases, rub in the oil at bedtime. Indeed, cosmetic gloves are good for dry, old-looking finger nails as well as for old, neglected hands.

M. A.—Use peroxide to bleach the superfluous hair, and it is possible that it will not be noticed. It is the fact that neither of you have much of this trouble. The tendency is slight, sometimes destroys it entirely.

J. A. H.—When bathing under the arms use water in which there is a very little bit of ammonia.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

The nails need cold cream.

J. L. M.—Using henna just with the shampoo will not change the color of your hair, but it will give it a slight tint which should improve it.

Tomorrow—Varied Shampoos.

Reader Friends have kindly sent in the following recipes in response to another reader's request for a rule for Potato Pancakes:

"Constant Reader: Potato Pancakes: Pare and grate six large raw potatoes, not draining after you grate them. Add four eggs, one teaspoon of salt, one large onion grated, and two tablespoons of flour (or enough to hold the mixture together in frying). Beat well and fry in a hot, greased pan, browning on both sides. This recipe may be changed so that only two eggs are used instead of four; but if this change is made, one level teaspoon of baking powder should be mixed with the flour."

"Mrs. C. C.: Potato Pancakes: Pare and grate six large raw potatoes, add two eggs, one pint of sweet milk, a little salt, one tablespoon of sugar, and one pint of flour sifted with one teaspoon of baking powder. Mix well before dropping by spoonfuls onto a hot, greased griddle as for any pancakes. Serve hot with butter and salt, or with stewed fruit."

AT GARDEN PARTY

Accepting an invitation extended by the College Women's club of Pasadena, a group of Glendale College club members motored to Pasadena this afternoon to be guests at a garden party at the home of Mrs. Elbridge M. Fowler at 363 Grove street.

Among those attending from Glendale were Mrs. Frank Parr, president of the Glendale club, and Mrs. A. L. Ferguson, past president. Miss Hazel White and Mrs. J. W. Knight.

Each one attending was asked to wear calling cards so that names and faces could be more easily adjusted and acquaintances facilitated.

During the afternoon there were dances by Miss Dorothy Ware, who also presented three of her pupils in nursery rhyme dances. The trio included Betty Richards, Mary Trowbridge and Frances La Tour.

Happy Surprise

Mrs. L. D. Torrey, who has served so faithfully and efficiently during the past year as president of the Acacia Parent-Teacher association, was happily surprised yesterday afternoon when the board members and room mothers of the association arrived unexpectedly at her home, 509 East Palmer street, for an informal afternoon.

There were thirty women in the company that enjoyed the afternoon with Mrs. Torrey.

Breakfast Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Kienle of 1308 East Wilson avenue were hosts yesterday morning to the instructors of history at the Glendale Union high school at a delicious two-course breakfast. Those who enjoyed the affair were Misses Frances Ahl, Ivy Hunter, Edna Magnuson, Jessie Hill, Clara Lauderdale, E. Maud Soper, Grace Rensch, Bessie Field and Herman H. Wiebe.

SEEK OFFICIAL NAVY SANCTION ON SUNDAY GAME

Picked Team From Pacific Fleet to Battle Sox in Benefit Tilt

While the wires between Los Angeles and the office of the secretary of the navy were kept humming with messages, plans for the big game here Sunday between a picked team from the Pacific coast fleet and the Glendale White Sox are going forward rapidly. The game will be played at the park on San Fernando Road, starting at 2:30 o'clock, and the proceeds will go to a fund being raised for dependents of the forty-eight men killed by the explosion aboard the U. S. S. Mississippi.

The official sanction of the secretary of the navy is sought for the occasion in order that one or more of the fleet bands can be brought to Glendale to add color and harmony to the afternoon's events. Shore leave for practically all of the gobs aboard the ships will be handed out, it is reported, and many of the sailors are coming to Glendale to root for the navy's team.

Parsons May Pitch
While the complete lineup of the navy team has not been announced, it is rumored that either Marvin Moudy, sensational hurler who has signed a Seals contract, or "Blackie" Parsons will work against the White Sox. Parsons' work is known in Glendale, as he was on the mound for the local team last Sunday against the Pacific Electric, and held that team to three hits.

Hanlon, who swings his hammer from the pipes on the U. S. S. California, and regarded as the best catcher in the Pacific fleet, is slated to be at the receiving end for the navy Sunday. Sullivan will catch for the White Sox. Young will cavort around left field, Dorman in center and Orsatt in right. Carl Sawyer, leader of the Sox will play his usual position at second, with Shellenbach at first, Hirigoyen at short and Shields at third.

Bigbee or Reiger may be Sawyer's choice against the sailors. Efforts are being made to induce Bigbee to return to Glendale, as his work against the Pasadena Merchants at Brookside has placed him in high esteem with local fans. Reiger won a place among White Sox boosters last Saturday when he turned back the hard-hitting Gilmore Oilers. The pitching assignment is undecided, however.

Expect Big Crowd
Inasmuch as it will be a benefit game, with the proceeds going to a most worthy cause, every seat in the grandstand should be filled next Sunday afternoon, and an overflowing crowd present. Hap O'Connor, representing the fleet, and Manager Frank Kerwin of the White Sox, are working to make the occasion one of the greatest baseball days in Southern California.

The Sox will be out to make it Victory No. 19, while the fleet all-stars will come with only one intention—putting a stop to the consistent winning streak of the White Sox, and cut the consecutive win of the pale hose crew off at eighteen.

BEGIN PHYSICAL TEST ON VESSEL

All Athletes En Route to Olympic Games Undergo Examination

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service.
ON BOARD THE S. S. AMERICA, WITH THE AMERICAN OLYMPIC TEAM, JUNE 20.—(By Radio).—Careful physical examination for all the members of the American Olympic team began today. The athletes are being found in excellent condition. There has been very little seasickness. G. Graham, California Tech, has been the worst victim of this ailment but is rapidly recovering.

Physical examination interfered somewhat with the workouts, but many of the athletes were on deck during the morning for limbering up exercises.

The American Olympic committee has decided to request the international rules commission on July 3 to adhere to the same scoring system adopted at Lyons in 1914.

Quarters Limited
President Prout, head of the American committee, will confer with the French organization committee June 28. The French decision to give ten points to the winners of various events is deemed detrimental to America.

It is learned now that the American team will have to be split up. There are not sufficient accommodations at Roquencourt for 261 Americans, so 67 of them will be quartered at Colombes.

Natives employed in South African gold fields now number 176,000.

In last night's matches at the Recreation alleys, the Gateways took three straight games from the furniture lads. Royals of the winners turned in 229 for his first game and 219 for his second. The Central Cleaners tied up with the Glendale Dry Goods when the Cleaners won three games of the match. McLane of the Cleaners rolled 225 for his first game, and 257 for his second. Yale Freshmen Crew Defeats Harvard Boat

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 20.—Yale's freshmen crew, rowing a swift, steady stroke, thrashed down the two-mile course on the historic Thames this morning to victory over Harvard in the first event of the annual Yale-Harvard regatta. The main event, the varsity four-mile race, will not be decided until late today. The Yale crew finished two and one-half lengths ahead.

Yale's official time was 10 minutes, 23 seconds; Harvard's, 10 minutes, 45 seconds.

Yale also captured the junior varsity race, winning by a length.

'CRUCIAL' SERIES
Today the Yankees begin a "crucial" series with the Red Sox. The latter team is two games back of the leading Yanks.

MILK FUND BOUTS PROMISE ACTION

Some Pick Spalla to Beat Tunney and Moore to Dethrone Greb

By FAIR PLAY
By Special Leased Wire to The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924.
NEW YORK, June 20.—If the Milk Fund top-line bouts live up to the ballyhoo, there will be plenty of thrilling activity at the Yankee Stadium next week. Ermino Spalla is being touted to give Gene Tunney a whale of a fight, and maybe he will, at that. The writer knows of bets being made that Tunney will not knock out the Italian, although it is conceded he will probably outpoint him. Spalla is working hard out at Summit, N. J., and, as the writer has already said, he looks to be a greatly improved fighter.

As for Harry Greb and Ted Moore, the talk is that the English middleweight is likely to take Harry's world title away from him. It should be borne in mind, however, that Harry is no easy guy from whom to grab a title.

The curious thing about Moore is that the British think he is inferior to Bolani Todd, whereas Americans who have seen both in the ring here in recent months figure Moore to be by far the better fighter. It is true that Todd is more scientific particularly when it comes to defense, but Moore is a mixer after the American manner, and is regarded by the experts on this side of the water as having a much better chance with high-class Yanks than any Britisher who has been here in a long, long time.

Since the crop of imported heavies is beginning to run out, Floyd Johnson will shortly face the necessity of beating up some real American fighters.

FAST FIGHTS ON HOLLYWOOD CARD

Bert Colima, Bobby Corbett In Main Go; Six Other Bouts Tonight

Plenty of action is promised on tonight's card at the Hollywood arena, for Bert Colima and Bobby Corbett are matched for the main event. Colima has figured in several fast scraps in recent weeks, while the Colorado wonder has been proving a sensation since his advent into the four-round game on the coast. They will weigh in at 152 pounds this afternoon.

Larry Murphy and Billy Wallace are scheduled to step out in the semi-windup. Johnny Drew, claimant of the lightweight title in the New England states, will meet Young Letty in the special spot. Other bouts on the card are:

Ernie Owens vs. Dean Hood, 160 pounder; Art Springer vs. Peter Grandee, the flyweight champion of Canada; Billy Hart, Benny Palmer, 119 pounds; Sailor Mullen vs. Bud Selby, 126 pounds.

FUNK PICKED AS CLEVER FIGHTER

Congressman's Son Will Show Up Foreign Boxers, Is Coach's Prediction

By SPIKE WEBB
Coach of American Boxing Team.
ON BOARD S. S. AMERICA, WITH AMERICAN OLYMPIC TEAM, June 20 (via radio).—Ben Funk, son of the congressman, is standing out as the best middleweight in the string of American boxers. He worked out for the first time since he sailed due to an abscess on the foot, and boxed one round with George Mulholland of Butler college. I had been worried about Funk, but the showing he made in this short set to with Mulholland allayed my fears. Funk is in fine shape and will show up the foreign visitors.

Among the other fighters, La Barbe, Lazarus, Kirby and Allegrini are disputing themselves well. They are all good men and will uphold the prestige of the American boxers.

LEADERS UNCHANGED

There was no change in the standing of the three top teams in the National league, the Giants, Cubs and Dodgers turning in victories, defeating the Braves, Phillies and Reds, respectively. In the American league the Yankees, also idle, gained a little ground when the Tigers split even with the Indians.

PLAN IOT TESTS

DENVER, Colo., June 20.—President Jesse Welborn of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company admits that negotiations are being carried on for drilling the property of his company in Southern Colorado for oil, but he refused to give the location of the test well or the name of the company which will do the drilling.

If you have some question to ask about baseball—
If you want a rule interpreted—
If you want to know anything about a play or player—
Write to: The Foster, a man who helped make the rules under which the game is played today. If you want a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed, envelope. Otherwise your question will be answered in this column.

Address: John B. Foster, Special Baseball Correspondent of The Evening News, 811 World Building, New York.

QUESTION—The starting pitcher is relieved by another on the same team who is playing the infield. Can the starting pitcher be put on the plate again?
ANSWER—The starting pitcher may go back to the plate if he does not go out of the game when relieved.

QUESTION—Are base runners obliged to go back and touch the base they were occupying after a foul? I have seen Texas League runners who did not.
ANSWER—The base runner must retrace his steps and the umpire can force him to touch the base. However, as the runner immediately is likely to lead off ten feet or so the umpires do not always make the runners touch the base and if the umpires call play there is no reason why the runner should go to the base.

QUESTION—Runner on first base. Batter hits a hot grounder to third. The third baseman throws him out, but the runner on first gets to second. Does the batter get a sacrifice hit?
ANSWER—The batter does not.

QUESTION—What is a pinch hitter?
ANSWER—A pinch hitter is one who is substituted for the regular batter because the substitute is presumed to be a better batter than the regular batter.

TOURNAMENT IS OAKMONT PLAN

Offer Equipment as Prizes In Contest Starting Next Saturday

Chet Beer, professional at the Oakmont Country club golf course, has announced that a "Ringer" tournament will be opened for members of the club on Saturday, June 21, to run until July 19. Those entered in the tournament will be charged a fee of fifteen cents for each score card and every nine-hole score turned in during the month will be recorded at the caddy house.

Low score for each hole during this period will be made up to the final score for the nine holes. Prizes of golf equipment will be awarded to the player obtaining the best composite score in this way. H. S. Webb, who turned in the low score in the Blind Bogey sweepstakes which featured the opening of the course last Saturday, will probably enter the "Ringer" tournament.

HOPPE WINS BOUT AT CULVER CITY

Pleases Fans With His Work Against Spug Myers on Opening Night

Dick Hoppe, sensational Glendale scrapper, furnished plenty of thrills for fight fans at Culver City last night when he won over Spug Myers, Idaho flash. The event was the big bout on the opening card at the new Culver City arena, and 3500 fans saw Hoppe give Myers a beating. Both boys were fighting every second while in the ring.

Jimmy Lanning and Johnny Jordan battled to a draw in the semi-windup. Kid Mexico won over Glen Clickner in the special bout. Tommy Richards, Jim Jeffries' protegee, and Jack McGreer drew down the wrath of the gallery gods, but succeeded in splitting even. Young Nino lost a decision to Frankie Aragon. F. O. Kelly got the decision over Batling Ward and Joe Medina felled Jack Spencer.

ADVANCES THEORY ON WINNING RACE

Football Instinct Enabled Chet Bowman to Gain Says Walter Camp

By WALTER CAMP
Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright 1924.
NEW YORK, June 20.—The football training of Chester Bowman, more than anything else, made it possible for him to stage the biggest upset of the Olympic trials at Harvard stadium and win the 100-meter finals.

In the intercollegiate and other events, it has been noted that if Bowman was leading at the half-way mark, he seldom finished first. On the other hand, he could almost always, even from a poor start, overtake the man ahead of him until he got into the lead. From that time on, the football

ANGELS FORCED INTO CELLAR AS TIGERS WIN, 9-6

Three Straight Victories For Vernon; Krug Used Four Pitchers

By BEN M'GUIRE
For Southland News Service.
LOS ANGELES, June 20.—The Tigers made it three straight yesterday, when they defeated the Angels, 9 to 6. Krug used four pitchers in an attempt to stop the Tigers.

Hughes started for the Angels, but was yanked in the fifth when he lost control, following two errors by his teammates. Frank Shellenbach, although a hit erratic, settled down in the pinches and pulled himself out of several dangerous holes.

By their defeat today the Angels dropped into the cellar.

Four runs in the eighth inning, following a single count in the seventh, gave Oakland a 6 to 1 victory over the Seals at San Francisco yesterday afternoon. Kunz and Pat Shea hooked up in a pitchers' duel early in the game, but the Oaks sent Shea to the showers in the eighth, and Henion finished the game.

Making an uphill fight, the Solons yesterday crept up on the lead piled up early in the game by the Indians, and in the ninth inning sent in the winning run, the score being 6 to 5. Jones and Sutherland worked for Seattle, while Prough went the route for the Senators.

Five home runs were made in the game at Salt Lake City yesterday when the Beavers were beating the Bees 15 to 12. Lewis, Frederick, McCann, High and Brazzil gathered the circuit clouts, while McCann also poked one for three bases. Schroeder and Bend were on the mound for Portland. Combe and Ponder hurled for the Bees.

OLYMPIC BOXERS GAINING WEIGHT

Work on Board Ship Is Not Hard Enough, But Will Train on Land

By SPIKE WEBB
Coach of American Boxing Team.
ON BOARD S. S. AMERICA, WITH AMERICAN OLYMPIC TEAM, June 20 (by radio).—The American boxers are taking on weight owing to the comparative rest they are getting on their voyage to France. When they weighed in today it was found the men had gained an average of three pounds, despite shadow boxing, walking and rope skipping. But that weight will come off when they get on dry land and get down to hard work.

I am more encouraged than ever over the outlook for the Yankee boxers. McDermott, the flyweight; Wallack, the featherweight; and Williams the lightweight, have all impressed me very much.

True, none of them is a "first stringer," but neither was Genaro when he became American flyweight champion, nor Mossberg when he went after the lightweight title.

FOR GAME'S SAKE

By LAWRENCE PERRY
Special Correspondent of The Evening News, Copyright, 1924.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Kirby, Rubin and other officers of the Amateur Athletic union have no idea that in proposing a new method of scoring points in the Olympics, France was shooting at the United States. It is merely they think that the unions are trying to work out a really practicable system of working out results. The fact that six places will count whereas the United States will have but four entries in event is regarded as one of the obstacles to the proposed idea that the French authorities huddled in their effort to evolve a definite plan.

The United States expects to win on track and field whatever system of scoring is employed but at the same time our officials will keep track of points in accordance with American methods and will be satisfied thus to win even assuming the Yanks might not win under any new arrangement of scoring that may be installed.

Two men for the walking event are being taken to France, not with any expectation that they will win a point but merely as an evidence of good faith and as well in hope that interest in walking will be furthered.

instinct to catch the man ahead of him disappeared.

The Olympic final was run in exactly the way to stimulate Bowman to the limit. He had to run his hardest practically all the way to catch up. He got into the lead about ten yards from the finish and then he was going so fast he could not slow down enough to lose.

Shipment of Postal Fixtures Is Delayed

Word has just been received from D. Ripley Jackson, Glendale postmaster, that the equipment for the new East Broadway office, will be delayed several days, making it impossible to move into the new quarters on the first of July as originally planned. Due to a large demand for postoffice equipment in the months of June and July the manufacturers have been unable to keep up with production schedules. It is thought that the fixtures will be installed before the middle of July and that the move into the new building will be made shortly after the fifteenth.

JUDGE TELLS OF JUVENILE CRIME

More Temptations In Path
Of Young Folks Today,
Jurist Declares

The increase in crime among the youths of today is due to more temptations being placed in their paths than were known in past years, Judge Harry R. Archibald, of the juvenile court of Los Angeles county, told members of the Kiwanis club at the meeting held today noon at the Tuesday afternoon clubhouse.

"The greatest surprise to me," Judge Archibald said, "is not that there is so much crime and so many youths brought into the juvenile courts, as why there is not more. Temptations in our youthful days centered mainly around stealing watermelons or apples, and the seasons were short. Today there are automobiles, picture shows, so many places for a youth to spend money, and he seldom has money that when he needs cash he is tempted to pick up something left loose and sell it."

Blames Truancy
"There is a great connection between truancy and the juvenile court. Parents whose boys are not attending school as regularly as they should, by all means must investigate and find out what is wrong. It will lead to more serious things if not corrected. Too much pep is another reason for juvenile crime, and a desire to get a thrill out of what appears to them a commonplace life is another reason. It is the father's duty to make themselves pals of the boys. Learn what they want, and give them a chance."

During the absence of President A. L. Baird, Dr. T. C. Young presided at the meeting. Telegrams from President Baird and others aboard the special train carrying delegates to the Denver convention, were read by Merrill Davis and Secretary Don Webb.

The attendance prize, donated by Dr. Young, was won by Dr. C. M. Conkling. Emil O. Keiffer gave a one-minute talk on William G. Bode, who was followed by a brief talk by Mr. Bode about Mr. Keiffer's business.

A. W. Perry addressed the members of the clubs on salesmanship, telling about a small booklet he had prepared for retail clerks, copies of which had been distributed to the members. Park Arnold led the singing, while V. W. Davis presided at the piano in the absence of Herbert Henning.

C. R. Lusby's jazz quartet furnished a number of popular vocal selections. The invitation of Manager J. B. Wolf of the Union Ice company's Glendale plant to visit this establishment at 5 o'clock next Thursday afternoon, June 26, was accepted.

Plan Pacific Fleet's Cruise to Australia

LOS ANGELES, June 20.—The 1925 summer cruise of battle-ships of the Pacific fleet to Australia has been approved, according to word received here. The ships will visit Auckland and Sydney for a stay of two weeks in each city.

Destroyers and light cruisers accompanying the battleships will visit Melbourne, but the latter will not make the trip as it is not considered advisable for the dreadnaughts to enter Melbourne harbor.

May Call Militia to Get Quorum In Senate

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 20.—With prospects of political peace as far away as ever, the Rhode Island state Senate reopened its fight today with renewed vigor. The Senate will reconvene this afternoon. If at the appointed hour there are not sufficient Republican senators in the chamber to make a quorum, Lieutenant Governor Felix Toupin is expected to call upon Governor Flynn for a company of militia to round up the absentees. Four of the Republican senators are still confined to hospitals as the result of yesterday's "gassing."

Deny Wobblies Spread Foot, Mouth Scourge

SACRAMENTO, June 20.—Officials of the state department of agriculture today scouted reports from San Francisco to the effect that I. W. W. had spread the hoof and mouth disease in California. G. P. Hecke, state director of agriculture, declared that the jump of the disease from Merced county to Los Angeles county has been traced to a shipment of infected cattle which left the Merced district before it was known the infection existed there.

Stage Demonstrations In Belvidere Gardens

LOS ANGELES, June 20.—Anti-Japanese demonstrations in Belvidere Gardens, a suburb, last night culminated in an attempt to tar and feather a Japanese automobile salesman, according to reports at the sheriff's office. Deputy sheriffs rescued the salesman as he was being dragged from his home by men and women. Signs have been posted in several places here, warning Japanese to depart.

Less Legislation Is Asked by President

CHICAGO, June 20.—A hope that there will be a "greater degree of intelligent and sincere cooperation" between industry and government so that "there will be less need for legislation" affecting business was expressed by President Coolidge today through Senator Simeon D. Fess, Republican, Ohio, in a letter to Senator Fess, read by him in the course of an address delivered before the Executive club of Chicago.

Two Injured as Fire Burns Town; May Live

YREKA, June 20.—Mrs. G. S. Allen, wife of a lumber man, was seriously burned and George Evans, fire fighter, seriously injured last night in a fire that destroyed twelve buildings at Hill, near here, were today expected to recover. Damage done by the fire was estimated today at $125,000.

MUST CUT POWER, OFFICIAL WARNS

City Manager Points Out
Reductions Necessary
Throughout City

In a full report of the light and power situation, Virgil B. Stone, city manager, states that the entire enforcement of the power supervisors, as it affects the city of Glendale, will be left in the control of Peter Diederich, superintendent of the city light and water department. He asks that every individual and every organization co-operate with the supervisors in the conservation of electrical energy in every possible way.

A letter will be issued to every consumer in the city, Mr. Stone states, offering suggestions where by electricity may be conserved. Owing to the circulation of various rumors concerning the cut, the statement is made by Mr. Stone that the city of Glendale derives all of its electrical power from the lines of the Southern California Edison company, and that this company has the greatest shortage of its history, owing to the extremely dry winter.

Establishes Quota
The Edison company has set a quota for each Southern California city it serves, he points out, and if this quota is exceeded, the company will pull the main switch and Glendale will be without electricity until the first of the next month, according to Mr. Stone.

This is a condition that the management of the city of Glendale is going to prevent if possible," he says. "If the merchants and home owners will definitely cut down the use of inside light and appliances, it is his opinion that we will be able to have the street lights burned during the entire summer, on a moonlight schedule, aside from excess ornamental lights."

"If the consumers of electricity in the city of Glendale do not seriously conserve and use our quota for any one month before the end of the month and the Edison company cuts off our supply, the consumers will have to admit that the situation will be due to their failure to co-operate."

HALLETT RETURNS FROM AUTO TRIP

Assistant Postmaster and Family Spend Vacation
In Yosemite Valley

George Hallett of 1136 1/2 East California avenue, returned to his duties as assistant postmaster early this week after a two weeks' vacation trip with his wife and children into the Yosemite valley. They left Glendale on June 2, taking two days to motor to the park.

Eight days were spent motoring through the valley and viewing the many points of scenic beauty and the famous Yosemite falls. Mr. Hallett reports that a very large number of visitors are in the park at present for so early in the season, and the officials tell of a indication of an exceptionally heavy summer. More automobiles entered the park on Memorial day this year, than on any single previous day in the history of the resort.

He found the roads in fairly good condition going in, but noticed that they had broken down considerably under the heavy traffic during the eight days spent in the park. Mr. Hallett tells of searching for bear all during the trip without success and then almost bumping into one while running full tilt down the side of the mountain near Glacier Point.

Guilty of Speeding After Third Hearing

Surprise testimony by the prosecution resulted in a verdict of guilty being returned against W. B. Miller of 327 West Stocker street, in the police court this morning, on a speeding charge.

Judge Frank H. Lowe, who heard the case, fined the defendant $50. This was the third jury trial necessary to get a verdict, the two preceding trials being hung nine to three for conviction. Leslie R. Tarr, deputy city attorney, prosecuted the case.

The surprise testimony that got the conviction was a letter from the defendant addressed to Mayor Robinson, wherein he admitted driving on Brand boulevard at twenty-four miles per hour, while on the witness stand he had maintained his speed did not exceed the limit of fifteen miles per hour prescribed by city ordinance. The business zone of the city was the subject of the letter. He had increased his speed to pass a truck.

Officer R. Baugh, who made the arrest, was present and testified for the prosecution.

NEW YORK CLOSING

H. J. DULZEND
For International News Service

NEW YORK, June 20.—The chief characteristic of the stock market today was its absorptive power. Intermittent waves of profit-taking and short-selling were taken care of in a manner which suggested the existence of far below prevailing levels of large buying orders for the account of speculative cliques in anticipation of an improvement in business conditions a few months hence. Rails and public utilities were by far the most consistent groups, both responding to persistent buying with handsome gains.

The usual amount of investment buying was again in force in the industrial list, but the ordinarily active market leaders were comparatively quiet. By noon the market had fully regained its composure, and the policy of marking up individual shares was resumed with renewed vigor.

Oils picked up strength in the afternoon, following a display of hesitancy. With the appearance of pressure against Atlantic refining, this stock rallied in good force. Refining preferreds were offered down to 100, a 4 1/2-point loss. Tire shares were unfavorably influenced by reports of a general downward revision of tire prices to be announced soon. Colorado Fuel was subjected to profit-taking, but consequent declines were partly retraced later on.

Independent steels and motors were easy, call money being renewed and offered at 2 per cent. Bonds, especially foreign governments, displayed firmness. Grain and cotton were irregular. Foreign exchanges ruled higher. Specialty movements continued to feature trading in the final hour. The main body of stocks, however, fluctuated within a narrow range. The market closed steady.

L. A. EXCHANGE

By Southland News Service

LOS ANGELES, June 20.—In trading was brisk this morning on the Los Angeles stock exchange, the deals being well scattered through the list.

Telluride in the mining issues showed a sensational gain during the morning session, opening at 11 cents and going to 16 cents before the first break. Then it dropped to 15 1/2 cents with prospects of closing higher. Richmond opened at 6 1/2 cents but as usual was hammered down to 5 1/4 during the selling of 20,000 shares. United Eastern also slumped, first sales being at 20 cents and dropping to 45 cents. Oatman United changed hands at 5 1/2 cents.

In the oils Julian performed as usual, the preferred opening at $32 and selling up at $32.25. Common, in turn, opened at $19 and then actively sold at $18. Edison common held firm through many deals in the industrial list at $100.50. Bonds were not so active this noon.

CHICAGO WHEAT

By International News Service

CHICAGO, June 20.—Grains turned upward slightly, after opening at lower levels today, but the upturn was blamed more on strength in outside markets than to any buying influence here. Trade fell off considerably and dealings mostly were in small lots. The close was firm. Wheat was about 1 1/2¢ higher, 1 1/2¢ to 1 3/4¢ was moderate. Oats were dull and prices declined early on selling by commission houses. Provisions were dull.

INVESTMENTS
By GEORGE T. HUGHES
Special Correspondent of The Evening News, Copyright, 1924.

Grading very high among conservative investments are the bonds issued under the Federal Farm Loan Act. They are of two classes, Federal Land Bank bonds and Joint Stock Land Bank bonds. There is a sharp distinction between the two. The Federal Land banks, twelve in number, are jointly liable for the bonds issued by any one of their number. There is no such joint liability among the Joint Stock Land banks. The Federal Land banks are operated for the benefit of the stockholder borrowers; the Joint Stock Land banks are operated for private profit.

Loans made by both classes of banks are strictly regulated by law. Mortgages must be secured by first lien and must not exceed in amount 50 per cent of land value and 20 per cent of the permanent insurable improvements. Income from bonds of both banks is exempt from all federal and state taxation. There has been some criticism of the policy of allowing tax exemption to bonds issued by the Joint Stock banks on the ground that such exemption is a subsidy to a private enterprise. This, however, does not touch the merit of the investment. For investors who require a high degree of safety and to whom exemption from taxation is an object these Land Bank bonds are very attractive.

One other important point should be considered in connection with these banks and their securities. That is the investment standard. The shares of the Joint Stock Land banks, which have been offered to investors in all parts of the country on an attractive yield basis. Undoubtedly they have merit but such stock should not be bought without a clear understanding of just what kind of an investment it is. A well-managed Joint Stock Land bank, and as

COUNCIL PASSES NEW ORDINANCES

City Officials In Afternoon
Session Handles Heavy
Rush of Business

The Glendale City Council pushed through a large volume of business in rapid order at yesterday afternoon's adjourned session, after disposing with the Glendale avenue paving complaints.

Passage of an ordinance abandoning proceedings for the widening of West Broadway from Central avenue to Pacific avenue was followed by passage of an ordinance of intention to widen West Broadway from Central avenue to San Fernando road.

An ordinance was passed ordering the widening of Ruben avenue. Bids were opened and read for the improvement of Columbus avenue (water pipe only), Acacia avenue from Adams street to Sycamore Canyon drive, Stanley avenue, Sinclair avenue and Richmond avenue.

Annexation Vote
An ordinance was read calling for an election to annex to the city a portion of the Mountain street district. An ordinance was read changing the name of Vine street to Western avenue. Resolutions were adopted setting the specifications for asphaltic concrete pavement, adopting plans for the improvement of Kenilworth avenue and other streets, authorizing the issuance of bonds for Watson court and Elm avenue, and a resolution of intention to improve Kenilworth avenue and other streets.

It was ordered that the city attorney draft proceedings to procure a bridge across the wash, continuing Canada boulevard to Verdugo road.

MRS. STONE WILL ENTERTAIN CLUB

Birthday Anniversary Will Be Celebrated With Elaborate Party

Informal activities of The Glendale Evening News Sunset club are to be continued right on through the summer time, the first summer meeting to take place Saturday, June 28, with Mrs. Della R. Stone of 446 West Broadway, who is to celebrate her eighty-seventh birthday on June 29.

Ever since she became a member of the Sunset club last October, "Grandma" Stone has eagerly looked forward to the club meetings. The last meeting was the first one she had missed for several months.

She is most happy over her approaching birthday, for her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Stone, with whom she makes her home, are arranging a delightful birthday party for the Sunset club members the day previous.

Mrs. Oldright Writes
As usual there will be an informal program and visiting hour from 2 till 5 o'clock.

Club members will be interested in a note received today at The Glendale Evening News office from Mrs. J. E. Oldright, who is now making her home at the Paradise Valley Sanitarium near National City, California. Mrs. Oldright and her late husband were devoted members of the club and greatly liked by all who met them. In her note she sends greetings to all her Glendale friends and particularly to those in the Sunset club.

MISSING MAIDEN HOME ONCE MORE

Anna Heiser Takes Position
In Department Store
As Parents Worry

Not romance but business animated the disappearance from home Wednesday afternoon, June 18, of Miss Anna Heiser, aged 17 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Heiser of 313 West Broadway. Deciding that she would a shop girl be, she went in to Los Angeles and got a position with one of the large department stores.

Miss Heiser then went to the home of a married sister who lives on Harvard street of this city, where she stayed over night. She is now back under the paternal roof, delighted with her adventure in "independence" and sorry her disappearance was an elopement.

Nelsons Enjoy Visit With Friends In Iowa

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nelson, of 641 East Harvard street, write from Britt, Iowa, that they are having a delightful visit with relatives and old friends. The Nelsons left Glendale a week ago and on their journey they visited the Grand Canyon and spent one day in Denver, where the Kiwanis convention is in session.

En route home they plan to visit Yellowstone National park for five days, then journey through Washington, Oregon and on south through California, arriving home the middle of July.

Little escapade caused her father and mother any anxiety.

As it was known that Miss Heiser has been corresponding with a young man in Iowa, whom she contemplates marrying in July, it was at first thought that her disappearance was an elopement.

Boy Blinds Pet Cats With Rifle, Is Claim

SANTA ANA, June 20.—Police here are seeking the "meanest boy." Mrs. N. Noe accuses the young miscreant with using his air rifle to shoot out the eyes of her pet cats. He also has been using the windows of houses at long range, as targets, so it appears that his obsession is to "shoot the daylight" out of things in general.
